WORKING WOMEN.

The condition of working women of the entire country has, of late years, been a subject which has merited the attention of all thoughtful and philanthropic classes as well as of the students of social and political economy. The medical faculty have observed the rise and progress of new ailments; the vital statistics have shown material changes in the proportions of births and deaths; the fields of labor have been subjected to a multiplicity of changes within the past few decades, and the gentle and restraining influences of home have relaxed their hold upon the youth of the present generation, until it has become a question of momentous import to the welfare of the nation to ascertain the cause of these changes, and to what extent they can be permitted to continue with propriety. And not alone in this country is the matter being gravely considered, but its importance is attracting the consideration of the statesmen and scientists of every civilized nation throughout Christendom. It is beyond the scope of this Bureau to enter into any dissertation upon a topic of such vast import, and neither the time nor opportunity has been offered to investigate the subject beyond a few classes of work which came under our observation in the course of the regular factory inspection during the past year.

Perhaps the most numerous class of working women are those engaged in the manufacture of clothing and underwear, but a very small proportion of whom work in regular factories in connection with the houses for which the goods are manufactured. Of the various factories visited, it was found that the employes did not constitute over 25 per cent of the entire number engaged in sewing garments for the manufacturers, the remainder being carried away from the store by individuals, who were estimated to engage work sufficient for from one to seventy-five persons. Of these latter, but little could be learned as to the number of hours worked or the daily earnings of the operatives, but of the class that worked directly for the manufacturer, the average earnings varied from 35 cents per day for beginners to $1.25 for experienced hands, the working time being 10 hours per day. The work, while confining, was not of a wearying character, nor did it involve any physical injury to the system, except in perhaps 10 per cent of the factories inspected, where the work was performed on sewing machines operated by treadle—steam or electric moters being employed in the other establishments.

The sewing women who work at home are often under the necessity of doing their own housework and sewing at intervals, and perhaps far into the night, and yet find it difficult to earn exceeding 50 cents per day during the busy season. One manufacturer, who is among the largest of his class in the United States, informs the Bureau that among the hundreds of employes who carry work home from his store, the work performed would indicate an average of 7 hours per day, the earnings being about 75 cents per day for a season of about 8 months; but he admits that an equal amount of work might be performed on other classes of goods, and the compensation would only amount to 50 cents per day.

The general surroundings of the sewing women engaged in factories are fair, and the accommodations which are provided indicate a disposition on the part of the employers to promote the welfare of their employes. There were, of course, exceptional cases, where the chief care seems to have been to obtain all the work possible at the least expense. The general appearance of the women working in the clothing factories indicated good health, and their ages varied from 16 to 25 years, 19 being the average. While there were various nationalities represented, those of native birth appeared to preponderate, closely followed by the German, with but a small representation of the Irish, Scotch and English races.

Closely allied to these sewing girls in the nature of their work were those engaged in the large dress-making and millinery establishments, where, however, fully one-third of the work is performed by hand, and another third on sewing machines operated by foot, while less than a third was performed on power machines. In these establishments the employes appeared to be of a more intellectual class, and of an average age of 22 years, ranging from 19 to 35, but few girls being employed. These women ordinarily work 10 hours per day, and their average wages are stated to be $1.25 per day. The work-shops for this kind of work are not as commodious as they should be for the number of persons employed, nor are the wages as high as might be expected for the character of work performed and the taste required. These remarks refer only to those engaged in the large manufacturing dry goods and millinery houses, and are not applicable to the smaller jobbing millinery shops.

Of the very large class of factories employing women, they are the most prominent in the manufacture of shoes, the proportion of the sexes being about equal. Not so, however, in regard to earnings. In the shoe factories everything is conducted upon the piece system, and there is no lagging behind in the discharge of the respective duties of the several employes. While the work of the women in sewing uppers and packing the shoes is light, it keeps them on a constant strain, and the wages average $1 per day of 10 hours. The condition of the workshops is generally good, well ventilated, light and airy, and in every way conducive to a strong, healthy development of the system, as the girls are usually of a vigorous constitution and robust appearance.

The large tobacco factories of St. Louis give employment to about 2,500 women and girls, whose ages vary from the tender child of 10 years to the gray-haired matron of 60—the average age of stemmers, however, being 15 years, and of lump wrappers 21 years. Their nativity is various, nearly one-third being of Bohemian origin, while nearly another third are of Slavic and Saxon birth, the remainder including various nationalities, not 10 per cent of the entire number being native born. Among the female employes of one establishment nearly one-third are colored.

The oft-repeated question as to the healthfulness of this employment can best be answered by the statement made by the superintendents of several establishments, that the percentage of absence from work on account of sickness among the female employes is less than 5 per cent, while the percentage of absence among the male employes for various causes exceeds 10 per cent. The average continuance of girls in tobacco factories is about five years, a large number being pointed out who have been constantly employed in tobacco factories for periods ranging from 15 to 25 years. The average earnings of stemmers and strippers amount to 85 cents per day, while the lump wrappers average $1.65 per day, the smallest earnings being $2 per week, and the largest thus far have been $18 per week. The factories are usually provided with fans to expel the impure and foul vapors from the tobacco while "sweating," and the atmosphere is frequently much less impregnated with tobacco fumes inside the workshop than it is outside. The factories are thoroughly cleansed, well ventilated and lighted, separate dressing rooms and closets are provided, and as great care taken to promote the moral welfare of the employes as the physical.

Among the light employments which engage the services of a large number of women and girls is the manufacture of candy and confections, in which work there are over 1,000 females employed in St. Louis.

This work requires the girl to be upon her feet almost the entire day of 10 hours, and the average wages are 75 cents per day, ranging from $3 to $5.50 per week, the ages of the girls varying from 13 to 20 years, and they are largely of German parentage. The condition of these workshops has kept pace with the other manufacturing establishments, and is a vast improvement over former years, the work-rooms being generally well lighted and ventilated, and provided with accessories to cleanliness and health.

The paper-box trade furnishes employment to several hundred girls of ages varying from 9 to 18 years, at wages ranging from $2 to $6 per week. These factories are usually too crowded with manufactured material and machinery to admit of free ventilation; but the main objection appears to be in the fact that too great a proportion of the entire number are of an age that they should be required to attend school rather than stunt their growth by continuously standing at their work for 10 hours a day. Seats are provided where it is possible, but in the majority of cases they cannot be used while at work.

The printing and book-binding trades also furnish employment to quite a large number of young women, whose earnings are in many cases dependent upon their expertness, ranging from nothing for the first few weeks to $2.50 per day for compositors, averaging about $8 per week, with 9 hours' work per day. Those engaged in the press-rooms and binderies are employed 10 hours and earn about $6 per week as feeders, and $5 as folders and stitchers. Nearly all of the employes in this class of labor are adults of fair education and American birth. The establishments in which they are engaged are, as a rule, well arranged for comfort and health, but in some cases there is too much crowding, owing to an increase of business without a corresponding enlargement of premises. The work is healthy, with a tendency to develop both intellect and muscle.

Of the various occupations pursued by women and girls, there are perhaps none more injurious to both health and morals than those of sorting rags and paper, cleaning peanuts, and operating machines in cotton mills and bagging factories. In these establishments are to be found girls of 8 years of age and upward, the average being about 12 years. While it is claimed that there is nothing connected with the work performed that can be detrimental to health, it must at least be doubted whether the constant buzz of machinery will not affect the hearing, and the inhalation of dust and lint must ultimately affect the lungs and plant germs of consumption. It is urged that the work is so lucrative and fascinating that many of the larger girls, after leaving these factories, return seeking employment as more congenial and profitable than can be found elsewhere. Be that as it may, the employes do not possess that freshness and robust vigor to be found among an equal number of girls engaged in other avocations. In many of the eastern States and in England there are stringent laws against the employment of children of school age, and where they are employed their labor is restricted to alternate days. It may not be amiss here to state that the improvement of the mental and moral condition of this class of female wage-workers has attracted the especial attention of a number of charitably-disposed Christian women, whose efforts at amelioration will be referred to farther on in this report.

The laundry business is constantly increasing, and the number of employes engaged in this industry is fully 1,000, exclusive of those who work at home or go out by the day. The average earnings of laundresses is $1 per day for nine hours' work, and this class of work women are largely of Irish nativity. The workshops are generally clean and wholesome, and the employes show a remarkable degree of vigor.

It is impossible in this brief introductory to refer to the various avenues to employment which are now trodden by the young women of our land; but as the favorite pursuits are those of stenographer, type-writer, telegrapher, cashier, assistant book-keeper and saleswoman, the applicants for positions in these lines greatly outnumber the vacancies to be filled, and, as a consequence, what were at one time remunerative employments now afford but a meager subsistence, when it is considered that the mode of living and dressing must be commensurate with the dignity of the occupation sought.

A general survey of the home conditions, the moral and social surroundings, the educational facilities, and a brief sketch of the various societies and institutions established for the promotion of the welfare of the working women in the State follow, showing that considerable interest is manifested in this important subject. Yet much remains to be done, which a more intimate acquaintance with the facts will demonstrate to be necessary for the preservation of both health and morals in the community.

ST. LOUIS WORKING WOMEN.

HOME CONDITIONS.

The working women of St. Louis, like those of other cities, are, with few exceptions, self-respecting women, striving to make an honest living for themselves, as well as helping other members of the family.

Out of 871 working women interviewed in this city, 798 (91.6 per cent) were single, 51 (5.8 per cent) were widowed, and 22 (2½ per cent) married.

Six hundred and sixty-eight out of 871, or 76.6 per cent, help toward the support of their families; 813, or 93.3 per cent, live at home, and 677 (over 83 per cent) of those living at home help their folks. Most of the women give their wages to their parents, who clothe them and generally allow them a certain amount of spending money—from 5 cents to 35, 50, 75 cents and $1 per week, the amount varying according to the wages received and the necessities of the family. Others, instead of giving up their wages, help their folks by paying board, and many of those having no one dependent upon them pay a nominal board out of their earnings.

Of the 58 who do not live at home, 35 board and 23 rent rooms, doing their own cooking or getting their meals outside. Those who board with friends or married brothers and sisters, pay from $1.50 to $5 per week, or an average of $2.50. Those who board with strangers pay from $2 to $5, or an average of $2.90 per week. As a rule, those that receive small wages and board away from home are unable to pay their expenses, and either suffer for necessities or depend upon friends to help them.

The majority of St. Louis working women are of German parentage. (See table.)

Out of 201 women working in tobacco factories, only six live away from home, and of the 195 living at home, only 26 do not help toward the support of their families.

Between 2 and 3 per cent only of the 871 working women are the sole support of their families. There are usually several in a family big enough to work, or if not, the mother helps with washing and ironing, scrubbing or sewing.

The majority of St. Louis working women have attended school up to 13, 14 and 15 years of age, at which time the greater number begin to work. Only half a dozen or so, and those among the oldest women, are unable either to read or write.

The working women of St. Louis begin to work at a much earlier age than those of Kansas City or St. Joseph. (See table.)

Many parents among the working people, and these usually of foreign birth, send their children to work in factories as soon as the children are big enough to do anything at all. The total amount made by several children in one family is often the sole support of a large family, the father being out of employment, sick or too lazy to work. Among the latter class the step-fathers seem to predominate. To some factories hearty, able-bodied fathers come day after day several years in succession bringing their daughters' dinners. They are men who are able to work, but have gotten into the habit of doing nothing and depending upon their children's earnings.

About 5 per cent of the working women have at one time or another tried working in families, but have left domestic service for factory work, either because they had more freedom in the latter work or were needed at home.

Over one-fifth of the whole number of women interviewed have their lives insured, and most of them are insured by their parents, who pay the dues. The dues are usually 10, 25 and 50 cents per month for amounts ranging from $80 to $280. Those that have the least to live upon, and sometimes the largest families, are the ones among whom this life-insuring idea prevails to the greatest extent. The object they all have in view is to insure a sufficient amount at their decease to pay for their burial expenses. Among those that earn good wages, there are some who belong to societies, the dues for which range from one to several dollars per month, and the amounts for which they are insured are in proportion to the dues they pay. With the exception of insurance dues, very few working women save anything during the year. Most of those living at home with their parents and having no one dependent upon them, spend the greater part of their earnings on dress.

Factory girls, as a rule, are fond of amusements, and many of them save their spending money for matinees, dances and boat excursions. The tobacco factory girls spend the most for theaters and excursions, spending from 25 cents to $1 per month for Sunday matinees; while the bagging factory girls, many of whom are Germans, are fond of attending dances.

With few exceptions, the appearance of factory women in the streets when going to and from work, is always neat and comfortable. They are very careful to change their working for street clothes when leaving factory or home, and could not be identified on the streets as the girls seen working in the factories.

Many factory women have tried dress-making and millinery work before working in factories, but have been compelled to work in factories, as they could not afford to work for six months or more without receiving any pay. Many milliners and dress-makers really impose upon their apprentices, making them work without wages for a very much longer time than is necessary, and paying almost nothing when they begin to give wages.

The youngest as well as the oldest women are found working in the tobacco factories; the next youngest are the peanut assorters, the workers in shoe factories and cotton mills. The oldest women, after those in tobacco factories, are among the seamstresses, tailoresses and those working in clothing factories.

Among the tobacco factory workers visited, there were ten women over 40 years of age and fifty-five under 14. Most of the old women between 40 and 60 years of age found working in tobacco factories have gone there to work because from old age, rheumatism or other ailments they are unable to continue in their old employment of washing, scrubbing or ironing for a living, but can manage to earn something at the easier work of stripping tobacco.

Many of the working women's homes are extremely poverty-stricken in appearance, while many others are very neat, comfortable homes with surroundings that are refined. Most of the working women's families live in tenement houses in two, three and four or more rooms. A few there are who occupy houses of more than six rooms. Those that have an entire house usually occupy only part of the house and rent the remainder to tenants. One-ninth of the working women live in houses owned by their parents. Out of 608 families:

272, or  $44\frac{7}{10}$  per cent, live in homes of 2 rooms, with usually a kitchen.

CONDITIONS WHILE AT WORK.

St. Louis has shorter hours in some factories than Kansas City, but longer in others, so that the average is about the same. The factories employing women do not give so long noon rests as either Kansas City or St. Joe. Out of 44 factories, over 6 per cent have less than 30 minutes noon, 50 per cent give 30 minutes and over, more than 34 per cent allow their employes 45 minutes and over, and 9 per cent give 1 hour noon recess.

The St. Louis working women work for a longer time in one place—do not change about so much from one kind of work to another as in Kansas City. Those that have been working the longest are found among the seamstresses, the workers in the cotton mill, tent and awning and cloak factories, and paper warehouses; while those who have been working the shortest time are the workers in cocoanut, willow-ware and upholstering, stamping and chewing-gum factories.

Out of 746 women, 174 have been working for 1 year or less than a year; the greater number, 333, have been working from 2 to 5 years; 183 have worked from 5 to 10 years, and the smallest number have been working as long as 10 years and over.

The workers in the shoe and tobacco factories make the best wages. Seamstresses and those that work in some of the clothing factories make the poorest wages. In several of these clothing factories the women are required to pay for the thread they use, and either to supply their own machines or pay a certain amount per week for use of machine in factory.

Hundreds of seamstresses in this city—those that take home sewing from wholesale and retail clothiers and work for shops and “sweaters” (middle men)—work from dawn until past midnight, and yet cannot earn half enough to support themselves. These women would starve if it were not for the help they receive from charitable societies. Their poverty is not caused by want of industry on their part. The wages paid for this work is not sufficient to command a living, no matter how much energy may be put forth.

Employers of factory help are blamed not a little for having children of tender years in their employ. The employer is not so much to blame as the parents. The latter bring their children to the factories and beg that they be taken, pleading extreme poverty and often no other means of support; and some wish by putting their children to work to keep them off the streets, where they would spend all their time if not employed in the factories. The employers cannot always refuse, but knowing the danger of allowing the children to work about the machinery, some give the children nominal employment which will enable them to draw their pay of $1 or $1.50 per week. In one factory a tender-hearted foreman has several children pensioned at his own expense.

KANSAS CITY WORKING WOMEN.

HOME CONDITIONS.

The working women of Kansas City are, as a rule, self-respecting, industrious women.

Out of 413 women interviewed in Kansas City, 210, or 50.4 per cent, have some one dependent upon them for support; 348, or over 84 per cent of the whole number, live at home, and more than half of those living at home have some one dependent on them. Of 65 women who do not live at home, 45 board, while 20 rent rooms and do their own cooking or get meals outside. Most of those who board live with friends or relatives. Board ranges from $2 to $6 per week, or averages $3.65 per week. Nearly one-quarter of the women who do not live at home have some one dependent upon them. Some are widows or deserted wives, with children to support. Others are young women, strangers in the city, who have come here to seek work, thinking to better their condition, and have been compelled to take whatever they could get to do. The majority of working women in Kansas City are of American parentage.

Out of 413 women, 346, or 83.7 per cent are single; 33, or 7.1 per cent are married; 27, or 6½ per cent, are widowed, and 7, or 1.4 per cent only, are divorced or separated from their husbands.

The fathers of many of the women living at home are dead or too old or sickly to work, and most of the husbands of the married women are out of work or too ailing to do anything. Most of the fathers are mechanics.

The working women of Kansas City have attended school longer than those of St. Louis. The greater number have left school at 14 and 15 years of age, one-fourth at 16, one-fifth at 17 and 18, and a small proportion have attended school up to 19 years of age. With the majority, a number of years have elapsed from the time they left school until they began to work. This condition of affairs may be accounted for by the fact that many have been compelled to work only since the death of their fathers, or since sudden reverses in fortune have necessitated their earning a living.

Only 3 per cent out of 413 working women in Kansas City have invested in life insurance policies, and these, usually, for small amounts.

There are very few tenement houses in Kansas City. With a few exceptions the working people occupy small cottages, as in St. Joseph. Fourteen per cent of the whole number visited live in homes of their own. Some of the working women's families rent large houses, occupying a few rooms and renting out remainder of house to boarders or lodgers.

Out of 277 working women's families:

|             |              |                          |
|-------------|--------------|--------------------------|
| 63, or over | 22 per cent, | occupy homes of 4 rooms. |
| 45,         | " 16 "       | " " 6 "                  |
| 38,         | " 13 "       | " " 3 "                  |
| 38,         | " 13 "       | " " 7 or 8 rooms.        |
| 28,         | " 10 "       | " " 2 "                  |
| 26,         | " 9 "        | " " 5 "                  |
| 19,         | " 6 "        | " " from 9 to 20 rooms.  |
| 20          | " 7 "        | " " 1 room.              |

( These last are mostly women who live away from their families.)

The average monthly rent for one unfurnished room is $3.82; for two rooms, $7.44; for three rooms, $9.80. A small four-room cottage, which seems to be preferred by the majority, demands a monthly rent of $11.16 on an average, while a five-room house costs $12.60 per month, and those of six rooms can be had for $15.55. Houses with from seven to ten rooms rent from $23.18 to $29.83 per month.

CONDITIONS WHILE AT WORK.

In Kansas City, the working women change about a great deal from one kind of work to another.

The factories in this city give working women longer noon rests than those of St. Louis, though not so long as those of St. Joseph. One-third of the factories visited give one hour noon, one-third 45 minutes or more, and one-third 30 minutes or more. In a few factories, Kansas City has longer hours than either St. Louis or St. Joseph, but on an average not so many hours of labor as the St. Joseph factories. The longest hours are found among the workers in tobacco and shirt factories, the carpet sewers, tailoresses, cash and brewery girls. The shortest hours are in the candy and cracker factories. The oldest women are found working in the pork-packing houses, shirt and overall factories and among the carpet sewers, tailoresses and seamstresses.

As far as could be ascertained, the "sweating system" of employing sewing women does not exist in this city.

Not all the factories have every essential convenience for the comfort and self-respect of working women, and the conditions under which some of them work are very injurious to health. In the pork-packing houses the women employed in some parts of the work are subject to rheumatism caused by working in a place where the floor is continually flooded with water. The general atmosphere of these pork-packing houses, which are also slaughter-houses, seems unbearable to one not working there. In many factories, the nature of the work in itself is peculiarly unhealthful and disagreeable, and the atmosphere is such as the work makes it.

In Kansas City, most of the dry-goods stores have the same restrictions in regard to the employes sitting down during working hours as they have in St. Louis. The same system of fines also is enforced. Cash girls in Kansas City are younger than those in St. Louis, some being 10 and 11 years old; and most of them work only during school vacation.

Out of 391 working women :

|-----|------------------------------------------|
| 25  | have been working for 10 years and more. |
| 64  | " " from 5 to 10 years.                  |
| 197 | " " " 1 to 5 years.                      |
| 105 | " " for less than 1 year.                |

Of these 391 women, the dress-makers, milliners and carpet sewers have been working the longest, and the tent and awning workers, cash and brewery girls the shortest time.

ST. JOSEPH WORKING WOMEN.

HOME CONDITIONS.

The home conditions of the working women of St. Joseph are above the average. Over 29  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent of those living at home live in houses owned by their parents, and, as a rule, the homes are all neat in appearance, even when poorly furnished, and many are more than comfortably furnished, with surroundings showing no little refinement and culture. With a few exceptions, the working people of St. Joseph occupy separate houses—cottages of two, three and four or more rooms. Out of 119 working women's families:

Out of 174 working women interviewed in St. Joseph, 116, or 66.6 per cent, have some one dependent upon them for support; 136, or over 78 per cent of the whole number, live at home with their parents, and less than half of those living at home have no one dependent upon them. They are working only that they may be independent, and have spending money of their own for clothing, amusements, etc.

Of the 38 women who do not live at home, 37 board and one lodges. Those who board comprise mostly women who are strangers in town, or whose parents live in the adjacent country. The rate of board paid by working women ranges from $2 to $6 per week, or averages $3. Many of them board with friends or relatives; 158 (91.4 per cent) of the 174 women are single; 7 (4 per cent) are married; 7 (4.4 per cent) are widowed, and 2 (1.1 per cent only) are divorced.

The majority of working women in St. Joseph are of American parentage. (See table.)

The greater number have left school between the ages of 12 and 17, and a few at 18 and 19. They do not begin to work so early in life as the working women of St. Louis. (See table.) A little over one-quarter only out of 174 working women have been compelled to begin work immediately upon quitting school; with the remainder, from 1 to 20 years (and in one case 28 years) have elapsed from the time they left school until they began to work. The average time is from 1 to 3 years.

The oldest women are found working in the clothing factories and laundries, the youngest in the canning, cracker, candy and cigar-box factories.

Milliners and saleswomen spend the most for clothing, while the workers in the canning, candy and cracker factories spend the least.

CONDITIONS WHILE AT WORK.

With the exception of a few places that are lacking in some of the necessary conveniences for the use of working women, the conditions while at work are rather better than those found in larger cities; though in factories where the work itself is of a particularly disagreeable or exhausting nature, and where the nature of the work necessitates a close atmosphere, the conditions are about the same as those found in larger cities.

Most of the factories in St. Joseph have longer hours than those in St. Louis or Kansas City. But the working women in St. Joe are given a longer rest at noon. Five-sixths of the places visited give an hour, more or less, for the noon rest. The longest hours are in the laundries, shirt factories and book-binderies; the shortest in the coffee mill and cigar-box factories.

The condition of the saleswomen in dry goods stores is better in St. Joe than in larger places, as, with the exception of a few particularly busy days each week, the women are not compelled to stand so continually as those in Kansas City and St. Louis, where the stores are always crowded with shoppers. Cash boys take the place of cash girls in St. Joseph.

Out of 163 women, 66 have worked for 1 year and less; 71 have been working from 2 to 5 years; 20 from 6 to 10 years, and only 6 have been working over 11 years. Those who have been working the longest time are the milliners, the workers in the men's clothing and paper-box factories and the coffee and woolen mills; while those who have been working the shortest time are found in the canning and cigar-box factories.

TRAINING SCHOOLS FOR NURSES.

St. Louis has three training schools for nurses, the oldest of which, the St. Louis Training School for Nurses, was organized in December, 1883.

The City hospital is the training school, but the home, known as the William G. Eliot Home for Nurses, is separate from the hospital. This home, situated at 1224 Dillon street, has been established for only two years. It is a modern built house of 30 rooms, supplied with every comfort and convenience, and furnished comfortably and tastefully—a beautiful home in every respect. The home was built by means of subscriptions collected through the efforts of William G. Eliot, and was furnished by different ladies, friends and managers of the home.

No board is charged pupils under training for nurses, but graduates are expected to pay $3 per month rent for room (two in a room), whether or not occupying room, and $4 per week extra for board when stopping at the home. Those employed in the hospital sleep in the home during the day or night, whatever time they are off duty. All who have been trained in this school make this place their home whether employed at hospital, waiting for work, or resting from work.

Taken from the report for 1890 of St. Louis Training School for Nurses, we have the following:

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Since the inauguration of this school in December, 1883, five classes have been graduated, and 25 nurses have been prepared for fresh fields of labor. The school has charge of the nursing in fourteen divisions of the city hospital, including medical, surgical, obstetrical and contagious cases. August 1, 1890, the nursing in two large medical wards was given to the school, and it became necessary to appoint an assistant superintendent—Miss E. D. Craig most efficiently fills the position; 4,681 patients have been nursed during the year. The school has charge of night nursing in five different divisions, averaging 180 patients for three night nurses. Miss Ada F. Eaton has charge of night service, and is faithful and attentive to duty.

There have been in the school, at different periods during the year, 28 nurses.

There are 24 nurses at the Wm. G. Elliot Home, including graduates and pupil nurses.

We desire the public should know that a nurse receives neither badge nor diploma unless she satisfactorily completes her two years' course of training. We also urgently request that in any case of doubt the nurse be asked to show her badge. In this way only can all possibility of misrepresentation be avoided. Several annoying cases have occurred of women discharged from our school for unseemly conduct or inefficient work, who have given employers to understand that they were our nurses.

Graduates have responded many times to appeals for service from indigent persons, and have given many weeks of gratuitous care, where skilled nursing was indispensable to save life. It is but just that something should be known of their private work.

The work of the year has been large and may be pleasantly reviewed as having been very satisfactory.

The nurses have been faithful and efficient, and deserve commendation for their patient and self-sacrificing labors.

Two new wards, lately added to the city hospital, have been assigned to the school. They are exceedingly well arranged and have been a benefaction to nurses and patients. Pressing as our needs are for more nurses, we feel that our standard must not be lowered and that a diploma from our school must stand as a synonym for good character, for faithful work and for proper attainments. Mrs. Geo. S. Drake kindly gave the means by which the nurses were enabled to take a course of cooking lessons this past year, a valuable adjunct to their course. The diet-kitchen which we have at the hospital is daily used in preparing special dishes for very ill patients.

PAPEE SENT TO APPLICANTS.

A two years' course of training will be given to women desirous of becoming professional nurses in the St. Louis City Hospital.

Applicants for admission should be preferably from twenty-five to thirty-five years of age, of medium size and height.

Each applicant should send with the answers to the printed blank, which will always be sent her, a letter from a clergyman testifying to her good moral character, and from a physician stating that she is in sound health.

Application for entrance to the school should be made either to Mrs. Wm. L. Huse, 3033 Pine street, or to Miss Warr, superintendent of the school.

Upon approval, they will be received into the school for two months on probation, during which time they will be boarded and lodged at the expense of the school, but will receive no other compensation unless accepted as pupils, when they must sign an agreement to submit to the rules of the school and of the hospital for a period of two years from date of their entrance into the school.

Applicants are received at any time during the year when there are vacancies.

During the time of probation the young woman will be examined in reading, writing, simple arithmetic and English diction. The examination is to test her ability to read aloud well, to write legibly and spell correctly, to take notes of lectures, to keep simple accounts. This amount of education is indispensable. The superintendent has full power to decide as to the fitness of the applicant, and the desirability of retaining or dismissing her. She can also, with the approval of the Executive committee, discharge pupil-nurses at any time for violation of the rules of the school or hospital, for evidences of moral or physical unfitness for their work, or any other reason which she deems sufficient.

A monthly allowance of ten dollars ($10) for the first year and twelve dollars ($12) for the second year will be made each pupil. This sum is allowed for dress, text-books and other personal expenses of the nurses, and is in nowise intended for wages, it being considered that the instruction given is a full equivalent for their services. Board and washing will be furnished without charge, and in illness all pupils will have gratuitous medical attendance.

The nurses are required, after two months of probation, to wear, when on duty, the dress prescribed by the school, which is of blue and white gingham, simply made, white apron and cap. The applicant should come provided with dresses of washable material, simply and neatly made, for use in the hospital. All clothing must be distinctly marked with the owner's name.

The day nurses are on duty from 6 a. m. to 7 p. m., and when practicable, some time during each day will be given for exercise in the open air. They are allowed a day off duty once a month, and half of each Sunday. A vacation of two weeks is allowed in each year.

It is not proposed to place nurses on night duty until they have been in the school for three months.

There will be an examination of the pupils by the Board of Examiners in the presence of the Instruction committee and of the superintendent and surgeon in charge of the hospital, which, being creditably passed, will entitle the pupils of two years' standing to the diploma and badge of the training school.

PROTESTANT HOSPITAL TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

This hospital training school for nurses was opened in October, 1890. Eighteen months' course of training is required in this hospital. The nurses under training live in the hospital. They are allowed $8 per month during the first year and $10 per month the remainder of the course, with board and washing.

Since the school was organized, 11 women have entered for training. Out of this number, three have been dismissed as incompetent, and one has left at the end of the month of probation. There are six in training who have been in the school one year, and one trained nurse.

Following are the rules and regulations for the pupils and nurses of this hospital:

RULES FOR NURSES.

1. Nurses must be prompt going on and off duty at meals.
2. Nurses are to be in the open air off of the hospital grounds not less than 15 minutes each day, unless excused by the Superintendent.

3. Night nurses are not to be in the wards or patients' rooms after 7 : 30 a. m., nor day nurses after 7 : 30 p. m.

4. Nurses are not to be out after dark without permission from the Superintendent.

5. All nurses not on duty must retire and all lights extinguished by 9:30 p.m.

6. No loud laughing or talking is to be indulged in, either in wards, rooms or halls.

7. Nurses are not to be allowed in the kitchen or laundry, except by order or permission from the Superintendent.

8. Nurses are not to receive visitors in the wards nor in the patients' rooms, nor are they to leave their place of duty to receive visitors without permission.

9. Nurses must not allow any kind of food or drink to be brought into the wards or rooms by visitors.

10. Any bottles found in the possession of patients are to be brought at once to the Superintendent, with the name of patient.

11. When a patient is dismissed, the bed-card must be brought to the Superintendent.

12. The temperature of each patient, pulse and respiration, must be taken within an half hour after arrival.

13. Nurses must report immediately to the Superintendent any food sent to patients in an improper condition.

14. Day nurses are to leave poultice-pans, puss-pans, basins, bed-pans and all utensils in a neat and orderly condition for the night nurse, and night nurses shall leave them the same for day nurses; when not so left, the failure shall at once be reported to the Superintendent.

15. Nurses must report at once to the Superintendent any unfavorable change or extreme suffering in their patient.

16. Nurses are prohibited from borrowing or loaning supplies or utensils from ward to ward without permission from the Superintendent.

17. Nurses are to bring all worn-out and ragged clothing or bedding to the Superintendent to be replaced; also, all clothing needing remarking.

18. Nurses are to see that mattresses and pillows do not become soiled or stained, protecting them always when necessary by rubber sheeting.

19. Nurses are allowed 25 pieces in the wash each week and one white skirt every two weeks. This does not, however, permit elaborately trimmed clothing of any kind. Everything put in the wash must be marked distinctly with the owner's name.

20. Nurses sent to outside cases must not leave a case without communicating by letter or messenger with the Superintendent.

21. While on duty in private houses, nurses must observe the regulations of the school with regard to dress.

22. A nurse must never, under any circumstances, speak to a patient or any one else with reference to the disease or ailment of another, nor relate to a patient sad or exciting experiences with other patients, nor discuss with the patients or any one else the treatment or methods of physicians. All violations of this rule will result in immediate dismissal.

23. A nurse is always to bring back with her, when returning from outside nursing, or have sent by mail to the Superintendent, a certificate of conduct and efficiency from the family of the patient, or from the medical attendant.

24. Nurses must hold sacred the knowledge which they obtain of the private affairs of the individual or household which they attend.

25. Nurses must obey implicitly orders of the physician in attendance, without note or comment.

ST. LUKE'S TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

Organized in September, 1889, is situated on Nineteenth and Washington avenue. The hospital is both home and training school for women under training for nurses or employed in hospital after finishing the course of two years' training. At present there are fifteen nurses in the hospital, two of whom have received certificates. The Superintendent, Mary J. Chambers, was educated at St. Bartholomew's hospital, England.

When the training school was first opened, there were more applicants than could be received, as many as 200 applying for admission. Following is circular regarding this training school:

ST. LUKE'S HOSPITAL TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

Has made arrangements for giving two years' training to women desirous of becoming professional nurses.

Those wishing to obtain this course of instruction must apply to the Superintendent of the hospital, upon whose approval they will be received into the school for one month on probation. The acceptable age for candidates is from 21 to 31 years. The applicant should send with answers to the paper of questions, a letter from a clergyman, testifying to her good moral character, and from a physician, stating that she is in sound health. Applicants are received at any time during the year when there is a vacancy. During the month of trial and previous to obtaining a position in the school, the applicant must be prepared for an examination in reading, penmanship, simple arithmetic and English diction. The examination is to test the applicant's ability to read aloud well, to write legibly and accurately, to keep simple accounts, and to take notes of lectures. This amount of education is indispensable for a member of the school, but applicants are reminded that women of superior education and cultivation, when equally qualified as nurses, will be preferred to those who do not possess these advantages.

Those who prove satisfactory will be accepted as pupil nurses, after signing the following agreement:

I, the undersigned, hereby agree to remain two years from date, a pupil of the above-named institution; and promise, during that time, to faithfully obey the rules of the school and hospital, and to be subordinate to the authorities governing the same.

During the first year, board, lodging, laundry, out and in-door uniform will be supplied, but no money compensation; during the second year pupil nurses will receive the same privileges and $5 a month. This sum is allowed for text-books and other personal expenses of the nurse, and is in nowise intended as wages, it being considered that the education given is a full equivalent for their services. They are required, after the month of probation, when on duty, to wear the dress prescribed by the institution, which is of blue and white gingham, simply made, white apron and cap and linen collar.

The day nurses are on duty from 7:30 a. m. to 8 p. m., with reasonable time allowed for dinner, exercise and rest. A vacation of two weeks is given each year. They are often given an afternoon during week, and are required to attend the place of worship they prefer once on Sunday.

COURSE OF TRAINING.

The instruction includes:

1. The dressing of blisters, burns, sores and wounds; the application of fomentations, poultices, cups and leeches.
2. The administration of enemata, and use of catheter.
3. The management of appliances for uterine complaints.
4. The best method of friction to the body and extremities.
5. The management of helpless patients; making beds; moving, changing, giving baths in bed; and preventing and dressing bed-sores.
6. Bandaging, making bandages and rollers, lining of splints.
7. The preparing, cooking and serving of delicacies for the sick.

They will also be given instruction in the best practical methods of supplying fresh air, warming and ventilating sick-rooms in a proper manner; and are taught to take care of rooms and wards; to keep all utensils perfectly clean and disinfected; to make accurate observations and reports to the physician of the state of the secretions, expectoration, pulse, skin, appetite, temperature of the body, intelligence—as delirium or stupor—breathing, sleep, condition of wounds, eruptions, formation of matter, effect of diet, or of stimulants, or of medicines; and to learn the management of convalescents.

The teaching will be given by visiting physicians and surgeons at the bedside of the patients, and by the superintendent and head nurses. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations will take place from time to time, and examinations at stated periods.

When the full term of two years is ended, the nurses thus trained can choose their own field of labor, whether in hospitals, in private families, or in district nursing among the poor. On leaving the school they will, after passing the final examination, each receive a diploma signed by the president of the hospital, examining board and superintendent of the hospital.

N. B.—Answers to the following questions are to be filled out in the candidate's own handwriting and sent to the Superintendent of St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.

ETHICAL CULTURE SCHOOLS AND CLUBS.

Schools in domestic economy, under the supervision of the Ethical Culture society, have been organized in this city for about three years. The schools, at present, use the rooms of the Self-culture clubs, 1532 Franklin Ave., and 2004½ S. Broadway.

The two classes, at either end of the city, have each about 80 children. The exercises are held in the forenoon and afternoon of Saturday in order not to interfere with the work of the children in the public schools. Owing to the small size of the rooms, the attendance has been limited to 30 and 40 in the forenoon and the same number in the afternoon, and further applicants are refused.

These schools were organized on the principle that the rudiments of self-culture in early life begin in learning to manage a home. The classes are for girls from 9 to 15 years of age. They are designed to give the elements of instruction on all the various branches in the life of a household. The instruction includes such work as sewing, cooking, making fires, sweeping, table-setting, bed-making, cleaning, washing, ironing, etc.

The main object is to elevate the view of the young with reference to the spirit they are to feel in doing this kind of work, so that it may not be looked upon as drudgery, but rather as possessing the same, or even greater dignity and worth than other business occupations. They propose to indicate to the girls that the elements of poetry, beauty and charm can be added to the home-life, even with very limited means, or on a basis of the very strictest economy.

These schools have received the cordial support of many people in the city. Ladies from churches of various denominations have all worked for them. The schools were started under the auspices of the Ethical Culture society. This only implied, however, that the Ethical Culture society would keep up the undertaking; that the work should be strictly non-sectarian.

Parents of these children are mostly laborers, a few are clerks. Not the least important work of this society are the Self Culture clubs for both young men and young women; also free library.

Many factory girls who have never before had opportunities for intellectual culture nor intellectual enjoyment have been greatly benefited both morally and mentally by belonging to these clubs.

THE LUCY E. TILLY WORKING GIRLS' CLUB.

A memorial club organized in March, 1891, comprises between 40 and 50 members, consisting exclusively of girls from Liggett and Meyers' tobacco factory. This club is designed to be self-supporting and self-governing. The aim of the club is to elevate and refine the character of the working girls. The club-rooms at 1322 Washington avenue consist of three rooms, two of which are double parlors furnished neatly, supplied with a piano and a small library of books and stationery, all for the use of the members. Twenty-five cents per month is charged for membership.

On Tuesday evenings instructions are given in dress-making. The remaining evenings for club nights are devoted to topical talks, familiar book talks, talks on physical culture and entertainments of some kind. Sunday afternoon is for Good Seed class.

Below is given "obligation of members:"

ADVANTAGES TO MEMBERS.

Free use of prettily furnished rooms, piano, books and magazines.

Access to classes in dress-making, physical culture, modern literature and fancy work, lectures, talks and entertainments.

OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS.

Members must be over 14 years of age. They shall pay an initiation fee of twenty-five cents, and monthly dues of twenty-five cents. The initiation fee will cover monthly dues for month of joining. Except in cases of absence from the city or sickness, members' names shall be dropped from the list if dues are owing for more than three months. ### THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE,

Organized during the past year, and known at first as the "Woman's Friendly Alliance," is a co-operative organization whose object is the elevation, development, protection and improvement of business and working women, in their religious, intellectual, social, domestic and industrial interests.

The central club-rooms of this association are at 2626 Washington Ave., where any business woman or working girl, in fact any self-supporting woman, may find a pleasant place in which to spend her evenings, sure of safe and congenial companionship, plenty of good reading matter and facilities for writing letters, or an opportunity to receive her lady friends by appointment. Besides which, there are organized classes in various branches of business education and in the elementary branches of common education, at hours to suit the members. Lectures or practical talks on topics of common interest, with occasional instructive and amusing entertainments, are given at 8 p. m. every Thursday.

Anyone may become a member of the Alliance by payment of 25 cents per month, which will entitle her to all the privileges of the club-rooms and the classes. The only branch club room as yet established is one at 1433 N. 10th St. But the advantages of the central club-rooms will be extended by the opening of other branch rooms, as they may be needed or desired in different quarters of the city.

In connection with the central club-rooms has been established a home where any respectable, self-supporting woman may find at low rates, board and lodging in healthy, prettily-furnished rooms, with bathing and laundry privileges. This home is very pleasantly situated; contains 10 rooms only, 6 of which are bed-rooms. Board is $4.00 per week for single room, or for two and three in a double room. The house can accommodate 11 boarders only.

Occupations of boarders now in the house :

The instruction nights are Monday, Tuesday and Saturday. Those giving the instructions are all volunteer teachers who work gratuitously. Instruction in music given by the matron, Mrs. Blair. Piano in the club-room is rented.

Number of club members, 165. Those taking advantage of instruction in English branches and dress-making are mostly German domestics. Those belonging to branch club are mostly factory and shop girls, the location, 10th and Cass avenue, being more convenient to their homes than are the central rooms.

Following is copy of circulars distributed among the working girls in the business and manufacturing places of the city:

"IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH."

To Business and Working Girls and Self-supporting Women:

St. Louis is far behind many other cities in the matter of co-operative organizations among self-supporting girls and women for mutual advancement, protection and culture. In New York, Boston and elsewhere, under the names of "Working Girls' clubs," "Working Girls' homes," "Mutual Aid societies," etc., numbers of such institutions are in successful operation, greatly to the benefit of all concerned.

MUTUAL AID—NOT CHARITY.

These homes and clubs are not planned on any basis of charity, but on one of mutual aid and co-operation—the aim being to help each self-supporting woman to secure larger comforts, more pleasure, and wider opportunities from her own earnings and exertions than she can possibly do otherwise. When several hundred or several thousand working girls unite, they can accomplish for themselves objects which would be entirely beyond their reach as individuals. By co-operation with one another they can secure better homes, better food and better opportunities for education and enjoyment.

As the first step toward such a co-operative movement among the self-supporting women of St. Louis, we have formed

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.

Its object is the elevation, development, protection and improvement of business and working women, in their religious, intellectual, social, domestic and industrial interests.

CLUB-ROOMS.

We have opened, at 2626 Washington Ave., club-rooms, where business and working girls and all self-supporting women—becoming members by the payment of twenty-five cents per month—may always find a pleasant place in which to spend their evenings, with good books and with safe and congenial companionship. Here members of the club may meet their friends by appointment, or write their letters, using the club stationery—always at their disposal—or may have the use of the well-appointed bath-room.

FRIENDLY AID.

Here, also, when in trouble or sadness, the members may find Christian women in whom they can safely confide, and who are glad to occupy a mother's or a sister's place, and by hearty sympathy and by loving counsel to throw light on the darkened pathway or give comfort to the aching heart.

We also aid in finding work for the unemployed.

Any member having a vacation given her, and wishing a pleasant resting-place out of the city, may have it arranged for her by applying to us.

THURSDAY EVENINGS.

The services of a skillful lady physician can be had at the club-rooms on the first and the third Thursday of every month.

On Thursday evenings, at 8 p. m., we have lectures or practical talks of common interest, with occasional instructive and amusing entertainments.

CLASSES—FREE TO MEMBERS.

In connection with the Central club-rooms, 2626 Washington avenue, we have organized the following classes, which are conducted at such hours as suit the members:

Dress-making, music, stenography, penmanship, plain sewing, type-writing, book-keeping, English branches.

No introduction is needed, therefore no one should fear to come alone.

Office of Central Club at 2626 Washington avenue.

CO-OPERATIVE HOME.

Also, at 2626 Washington avenue, we have opened a clean, healthful, cheerful home, where by means of co-operation—not charity—board is secured at low rates by self-supporting girls and women. We hope that this is the first of many of its kind destined to be established in different parts of our city.

The advantages afforded by the Central club and by that on 10th and Cass avenue will be extended to other quarters of the city, by the opening of rooms elsewhere, as they may be needed and desired.

YOUR ADVICE WANTED.

As anything that concerns working women concerns us, we desire that the members will, without hesitation, offer such suggestions, or give such advice, as their practical experience may show to be necessary. Who can so well know a working girl's need as a working girl?

Women who are so situated as to have no need of the advantages offered by the club will greatly assist those in charge of this work, by aiding in any way the carrying out of our plans, or by suggesting additional ones for the perfecting of the organization and for the benefit of those less fortunate than themselves.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY FOR AMERICA.

The Girls' Friendly Society is an association of women banded together for the protection and encouragement of purity among girls and young women. It does not attempt the work of reclaiming the fallen. It strives to uphold the special virtues of modesty, purity and self-respect, and links members and associates together in mutual help, sympathy and prayer.

The G. F. S. was first started in England in the year 1875, and in America in 1886. It is now said to be the largest society for women and girls in the world. In England it numbers 150,000 associates and members, without reckoning 9,000 in Ireland and a large number in Scotland. It exists in all the colonies, and is increasing steadily in this country, as it is becoming more known. The work is for an important class in the community—the future women, mothers it may be, of the working class in the land; and it is for an important object—their purity, their helpfulness, their moral excellence.

The girls to be sought out are :

1. Members of our own church.
2. Strangers coming from other places.
3. Girls who belong to no religious body, who go to no place of worship on Sundays.

The Friendly societies desire to enlist members at the beginning of their girlish life, at the period which determines in some measure what their future shall be ; that the effect of being associated with others of good reputation and desirous to keep it, may brace them in the resolution to strive after a pure and modest life, may encourage them to stand firm against the frequent opportunities and strong temptations to an opposite course.

G. F. S. A.—MOTTO: "Bear ye one another's burdens."

OBJECTS.

1. To bind together in one society church women as associates and girls and young women as members, for mutual help (religious and secular), for sympathy and prayer.
2. To encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents, faithfulness to employers, and thrift.
3. To provide the privileges of society for its members, wherever they may be, by giving them an introduction from one branch to another.

CENTRAL RULES.

1. Associates to be communicants of the church (no such restriction being made as to members), and the organization of the society to follow as much as possible that of the church, being diocesan and parochial.
2. Associates and members to contribute annually to the funds—the former at the rate of not less than 5 cents a month, and the latter at not less than 1 cent a month.
3. No girl who has not borne a virtuous character to be admitted as a member ; such character being lost, the member to forfeit her card.

The Girls' Friendly Society has not as yet much of a foot-hold in St. Louis. Only one religious denomination in this city, the Episcopalian, has become interested in this society.

Sister Eliza of Christ church parish started the work with the Central branch, which numbers 35 members.

The Southern branch connected with the mission work of St. Stephen's parish numbers 18 members ; and the Northern branch connected with All Saints' church consists of colored girls numbering about 30 members. Total number of members in St. Louis, 83.

ST. LOUIS WORKING GIRLS' FREE LIBRARY.*1510 LAFAYETTE AVE.

Following is part of report for 1890 given by Mrs. Lucy A. Wiggin, founder of the St. Louis Working Girls' Evening School, Library, etc.:

INTRODUCTION.

The object of this institution is to benefit girls employed in factories and elsewhere. Those whose opportunities are fewest and whose lot in life is hardest are specially welcomed.

Our aim is chiefly educational. A free evening school is open seven months in the year. Permanent library privileges are afforded. Books are issued on Sundays to suit the convenience of the girls. Wholesome amusement is furnished constantly.

A Friendly Aid is in operation which relieves distresses, provides employment, furnishes concerts, lectures, excursions, stereopticon entertainments, etc. Sympathy and advice are given in all cases of sickness and misfortune.

No thought of charity enters into our relation with the girls. From the first we have maintained, for the school, the dignity and independence of a public school. The relation of teacher and pupil in our school is closer than is practicable in the city schools. The work, the home affairs, the family are all matters of interest to us, and if it is possible to assist the girls in any way it is done, much as older sisters consider the well-being of younger members of the same household.

The school began November 9, 1886, the school board having granted my request for one room in the Clinton school on Grattan street, for the purpose of opening a free evening school for girls employed in factories during the day—all expenses of service, lighting and heating, as well as damage to furniture, being assumed by the teacher.

The girls of one factory were invited, and twelve responded the first night. During the session forty were enrolled.

The second and third year our sessions were held in the Carroll school, where we had many advantages; light, heat and service were furnished by the school board. This school is situated near the homes of many of the girls. Each following term showed an increased attendance, sixty the second year, ninety the third, with more than one hundred the last, though the attendance was not so large.

The fourth session opened in our new library rooms at 1510 Lafayette avenue, where we are now located.

THE SCHOOL.

The methods adopted in the evening school are simple, attractive and as helpful as possible. This is as it should be, for our pupils are fatigued to the last degree by the severe strain made upon them in their work. It requires courage and great resolution to enable one to go to an evening school after working hard all day, and it should be pleasant and as profitable as it can be made for them, otherwise they will not attend.

Our program is arranged with special reference to this fact. Restful music and lecture occupy the first hour at each meeting Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. The singing is specially interesting. All the girls enjoy it, and most of them sing well. The piano has been a great source of pleasure. The singing, as indeed every exercise, serves as a means of inculcating the lofty sentiments of patriotism, love, truth, duty, etc. Such branches are introduced as will best fit our pupils for useful lives in years to come.

On Monday nights lectures on physiology and hygiene are given; health, food, dress, etc., are discussed. An effort is made to acquaint the class with the all-pervasive laws which condition their lives of rest, sleep, exercise, cleanliness, ventilation, etc.

To girls whose education was cut short just as it had fairly begun, this is important. The fast flying years are hurrying them on to the responsibilities of womanhood. But little home-life is possible, and almost no home instruction. The mother herself is over-worked, and has not had many advantages. The home is usually in a crowded tenement. We undertake to supply the deficit of home instruction, and "unto the least of these" give our love and service.

The common branches are also taught. The reading lessons are found in our text-book on physiology. Three results are attained in one lesson in composition: neat writing, perfect spelling and the ability to form a correct English sentence. Lessons are also given in the use of numbers as applied to United States money.

Wednesday evening history is taught in connection with the geography lessons. Maps, globes and charts are used to give definite ideas of people and places. These exercises are in the form of lectures, and may be reproduced in composition. The second hour of this evening is also given to the study and practice of the common branches.

Friday night is important. The lecture of the evening is on deportment and moral responsibility, or practical talks on household questions, alternating with biographies of eminent and useful women, whose lives offer noble examples. In the moral conduct lesson we endeavor to awaken a strong feeling for justice, truth, honesty, generosity, courage, patience, perseverance, mercy, reverence and goodness.

THE GIRLS' GOOD WILL CLUB.

The girls of our school have organized themselves into a society to help themselves and each other. They will stand for the right at all times, and defend the weak; will do all the good they can; will never pass by a case of distress without trying to relieve it; cases of destitution will be reported to the manager. They will encourage proper speech; will refrain from using slang and profane language; will be faithful in their work, whatever it is. During their vacation, from the first of May to the first of October, the club will provide entertainments, excursions, etc. Many of the teachers are members of this club. The conditions of membership of the club consist in a willingness to conform to the spirit of its laws, and pay the small dues of twenty-five cents per annum.

Mrs. Wiggin is assisted in her work by ladies, who, like herself, give their services gratuitously.

It is the earnest wish of the manager of this school to build a suitable building convenient to the homes of these working girls, dedicated to the work set forth in the above report. For this purpose a small nucleus has already been obtained.

ST. LOUIS WORKING GIRLS' FREE LIBRARY.

Following is copy of circulars distributed among the factory girls of the city:

IMPORTANT TO WORKING GIRLS.

A free evening school is now open Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, from 7 to 9 o'clock, at the rooms of the St. Louis Working Girls' Free Library, 1510 Lafayette avenue.

Instruction is made pleasant and helpful, and suitable to the needs of girls of any age, who have left school early to go to work.

MONDAY: Lecture on how to keep well, care for the sick, etc., followed by a short lesson in geography and United States history.

WEDNESDAY: Reading, arithmetic, spelling, writing and composition in letter writing.

FRIDAY: A friendly talk by the Manager; a lesson in sewing, darning, mending, cutting garments, and trimming hats and bonnets.

Singing with piano music each night. A full concert the last Friday in each month is given.

Members may attend any special night, but regular attendance is desired.

Parents are requested to encourage their daughters' attendance. The library is open to all, every Sunday afternoon.

ST. LOUIS WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Following is part of the constitution:

We, the undersigned women of St. Louis, actuated by motives of Christian philanthropy, associate ourselves together on the broad platform of one in Christ, for purposes of practical love and humanity; and for the furtherance of this object do adopt the following constitution:

ARTICLE I.

This association shall be called the St. Louis Women's Christian Association, and by that name shall have succession for fifty years.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this association shall be to provide for the physical, intellectual, social, moral and religious wants of industrial women of St. Louis. For the attainment of this object it proposes to establish a "Christian Home;" to maintain the home for aged men, and aged women and their wives, called the "Memorial Home;" also, the organizations known as the "Women's Training School and Day Nursery," and to provide by-laws for the separate special management of each of said organizations now in existence, and such as may hereafter be created.

Also, part of the by-laws:

SECTION 1. Any woman who may be accepted as a proper person by the association, or by any one of its auxiliary organizations, working under its authority, may become a member of this association by the payment of the sum of two dollars ($2) to the treasurer of the association, or to the treasurer of any of the auxiliary organizations.

A life membership, exempt from annual dues, may be constituted by the payment of twenty-five dollars ($25) at any one time to the association, or any one of its auxiliary organizations.

Honorary members may be elected by a vote of the association at a regular meeting, and shall be exempt from payment of admission fees or dues.

SEC. 2. The dues shall be two dollars ($2) per annum after the payment of the admission fee. For a failure to pay the yearly dues within each year the Executive committee may declare a membership forfeited, after notifying the member in default.

THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN HOME,

Situated at 1814 Washington avenue, is the oldest institution of the St. Louis Women's Christian association. This home was opened 22 years ago with a few boarders in a building, on Fifth and Spruce streets. For the last 15 years it has been in its present location; a building of 50 bed-rooms, with library or reading room and double parlors, all for the use of the boarders. The building is heated with steam and each floor has bath-rooms, etc., with hot and cold water. Can accommodate 100 boarders. Number of employees, including superintendent, house-keepers and domestics, 13.

The Women's Christian Home is designed as a boarding place for the self-supporting woman, where she can feel that she has the sheltering care and protection of a home and is not entirely alone in a world of unsympathizing strangers. It is not a home for charity boarders, as so many have erroneously supposed, and yet women who are temporarily in need of assistance do receive the necessary aid required, and none but the Superintendent know of the help given them.

The charges for board are $1 and $1.25 per day for transients, and for permanents, $3.25, $3.50, $4, $4.50 and $5 per week; $5 per week is for single rooms, which are few in number. The remaining rates are for rooms with two, three and four occupants each; $3.25 is considered cost price.

For the year 1890,

There were 5 boarders paying $5.00 per week.

|   |   |    |   |   |        |   |   |
|---|---|----|---|---|--------|---|---|

| " | " | 5  | " | " | $3.00 | " | " |

Total.. 72    "    "

Besides 10 persons who were given board gratuitously. Total number boarders, 82.

At present time, June, 1891, there is no one dependent upon the charity fund.

In this home all are working women depending upon their own exertions for a living, therefore there is that feeling of fellowship and sympathy with the neighbor without which life's hardships are so much less endurable.

All occupations except those of the factory girl are represented in this home. The earnings of the boarder are from $1.00 to $3.00 per day.

OCCUPATION OF BOARDERS.

| Printers .....             | 3  |                      |    |

The boarders might be divided into four classes :

1. Those who earn good salaries and who could, for the highest rates charged in this home, obtain in a private family care of bedroom, less crowded sleeping accommodations and less bell-ringing, but who prefer to remain in this place, because it is more convenient to their place of business, and on account of the greater degree of home freedom, and the feeling of fellowship with the neighbor that is possible in a home like this.

2. Those whose salaries or expenses will not warrant their paying more than $3.50 per week.

3. Those who can pay only a part of the cost price—their meager earnings forbidding; and it is for this class that the charity fund is called upon, and a sum sufficient to make the amount is advanced to them on the books. This is sometimes repaid, but not always, the recipient seldom being able to do more than meet her current expenses.

4. Those who have suddenly been left orphans without any way of making a livelihood. Such girls are given a home gratuitously while fitting themselves to earn a living.

Advanced during the year 1890 to those paying less than cost price, $325.

The home is self-supporting except for the extra expense entailed by the charity fund and the necessary wear and tear of building and furniture.

The accommodations of the building are not adequate to the number of working women applying for board. During the last six months the total number of boarders accommodated was 284, the majority of whom were transients. On account of the limited accommodations, many during the year have been refused board.

Following are rules for standing committee; also Treasurer's report for 1890 :

RULES FOR STANDING COMMITTEES.

THE ADMISSION COMMITTEE

Will receive all applications for board. Written testimonials of character will be required in all cases where it is possible to obtain them; the same to be filed at the Home. This committee will dismiss from the Home any boarder who does not conform to the regulations of the same, or who may be exerting an injurious influence in the Home.

THE HOME COMMITTEE

Will have a general supervision over the comfort and well-being of the household; advise and co-operate with the Matron in all matters pertaining to house-keeping. They will have care of all movable property of the Home and provide for the preservation of the same.

THE SUPPLY COMMITTEE

Will purchase all that is needed in the culinary department, except marketing, and furnish a statement of the same at each monthly meeting. Each bill will be indorsed by the party contracting the same.

THE VISITING COMMITTEE

Will endeavor to acquaint themselves with young girls who may need the protection of our Home, and to invite them thereto, and in all ways possible seek to cheer, counsel and elevate those under our care.

THE RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE.

A member of this will be expected to be present at family worship at least once in each week, accompanied by some clergyman designated by this committee, who shall assist or have charge of the devotions of the hour. This committee will seek a personal acquaintance with the inmates of the family, and exercise Christian guardianship over all. They will also devise plans by which the moral and religious influence in the Association may be increased.

THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Shall collect and have the supervision of all books donated or otherwise secured to the Home library; see that all books suitable to be retained are numbered, and a perfect account kept with all boarders taking and returning the same. It shall also extend its usefulness by providing instructive lectures, organizing classes and procuring gratuitous teachers in such branches as may be desired by the boarders and deemed expedient by this committee or the Executive Board. In all ways that may be helpful intellectually to the aforesaid boarders, they shall give their careful and earnest attention and aid.

PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE.

It shall be the duty of the Protective Committee to afford all necessary aid to industrial women; securing to and protecting them in their legal right, whether affecting their persons or property.

WORKING WOMEN'S HOME AND TRAINING SCHOOL.

The Women's Training School was organized by the Women's Christian Association in the year 1882, since which time has been added the Working Women's Home.

Since September, 1888, the building known as the St. Nicholas hotel, situated on Fourth, between Morgan street and Franklin avenue, has been occupied as the Working Women's Home and Training School.

The Training school has for its object the education of girls and women as bread-winners in all branches that have a tendency to assist women to be self-supporting. The Training school begins at the foundation and fits a girl to hold her own in whatever branch of work she may engage.

Girls for training in general housework who are preparing for domestic service, do laundry, chamber and dining-room work, and take lessons two and three times a week, in cooking and dress-making. Girls remaining under this instruction until they are qualified for domestic service, will receive certificates from the committee and assistance in securing situations. While under instruction, they can, if desired, board and lodge in the home free of charge.

Servant girls out of employment are provided with board and lodging at 30 cents per day, and for all who come well recommended, the committee undertake to secure situations, $1 charge for same being required of employer only.

The instruction given in the Training school comprises short-hand, type-writing, cooking, dress-making and book-keeping, to which list has lately been added instruction in music, both instrumental and vocal.

The library of this training school is for the use of any working woman in the city. It now contains 800 volumes, 200 of which were added this year. The number of members enrolled is 225; number of books taken out during the year, 3,823.

The lunch-room for industrial women is the most flourishing department of the school. During the past year were served 81,297 lunches, at an average of 11 cents each. These lunches are furnished according to schedule—at from 5 to 15 cents—good, substantial, appetizing food, consisting of milk, tea, coffee, bread and butter, crackers and hot soup, hot meats and vegetables, salads, pies and puddings.

Following is bill of fare for one day:

|                                       |    |
|---------------------------------------|----|
| Soup and crackers (ala Flamande)..... | 5c |
| Bread and butter.....                 | 2c |
| Bolled beef.....                      | 5c |
| Roast mutton.....                     | 5c |
| Potatoes.....                         | 3c |
| Spinach.....                          | 3c |
| Succotash.....                        | 3c |
| Nelly's pudding.....                  | 5c |
| Apple charlotte.....                  | 5c |
| Tea, coffee or milk.....              | 5c |

The girls who serve these lunches are short-hand and type-writing pupils who, in this way, manage to pay for their tuition. Most of these pupils live at home. Those who board at the school have their noon meal, which is given them free of charge, deducted from their board bill, which makes the average board $2.50 per week.

Any working woman of good character can obtain board in this Working Women's Home for from $3 to $4.50 per week—$2.10 per week for servant girls. The home contains over 30 rooms, which are furnished very plain but comfortably. Most of the sleeping apartments are so situated that they have only a small amount of daylight and no sunshine at all, which condition of affairs makes the rooms exceedingly gloomy and dungeon-like in appearance and quite unhealthful for the occupants.

The school and home are kept up by donations of various kinds, subscriptions, money received for instruction, etc., etc.; also by entertainments and excursions given by the lady managers, teachers and others interested in the work.

RULES GOVERNING THE HOUSE.

Occupants are expected to keep their rooms neat and orderly, and to bring water for their bath. Nothing but water to be put in the slop-jars. Nothing to be thrown from the windows. All rubbish to be placed in a box which will be furnished for each hall.

Boarders desiring their rooms cared for must notify the office clerk; charge, $1 per week extra.

Occupants of rooms are requested, on leaving them, to lock the door and hang the key on the key-board.

HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS.

Situated on the line of the South St. Louis Electric railway, midway between its Sixth street terminus and Carondelet, is the institution known as the Old Ladies' Home.

This home was designed to provide a home-like refuge for old ladies who have once enjoyed the comforts of independence and been deprived by misfortune of their means of subsistence.

The home was started in 1853, by Mrs. Charles, with a nucleus of $500; to which was added $20,000 in response to her appeal to the ladies of St. Louis. The home opened with 5 inmates, which number increased to 10 by the end of the first year. At present there are 65 old ladies in the home.

The building has been enlarged from time to time, until now there are 65 bed-rooms for the inmates, besides other necessary rooms required by such an establishment. The home is fitted up with comfort and taste and supplied with every modern convenience. The buildings are in the midst of well-kept grounds of several acres in extent, beautified with flowers and trees, while fruits and vegetables for the inmates are cultivated on the grounds.

Conditions for admission to the home are: That the person must be 50 or 60 years of age, of good character, and give $100 to the home. But among the inmates are many who upon entering have given the home from $500 to $10,000. Each room has but one occupant, and is furnished by the inmate, her friends or the home.

The old ladies are surrounded with every necessary comfort, and when sick receive all the attention and tender care that can be provided by loving kindness. Many old ladies of education and refinement, who have formerly occupied enviable positions in the social world, have through misfortune been compelled to seek a refuge in this home.

Of the 65 inmates, about 15 are women who have never been married; 4 of the 10 women with which the home opened are still living; 14 old ladies were admitted during the past year. The majority of those in the home have no children and are alone in the world. About 20 of the inmates are invalids who are unable to go down to their meals.

The home is supported by annual subscriptions, donations, legacies, proceeds from festivals, entertainments, etc.

ST. ANN'S WIDOWS' HOME.

Under the same roof with St. Ann's Lying-in hospital and Foundling asylum, situated at Tenth and O'Fallon streets, is a home for aged widows who have no homes elsewhere. It is non-sectarian in its work. Those who have any means at all give what they possess to the home, but those who are destitute are also received as inmates.

Number of deaths during the year, 4.

Number admitted during the year, 4.

Number now in the house, 27.

The present home has accommodations for only 27.

HOME FOR THE AGED (LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR).

Home for the Aged, situated on Hebert and Twenty-second streets, was established by the Little Sisters of the Poor in 1869. The house occupied by the Little Sisters and their charges is an immense brick building with some out-buildings, owned by the Sisters. There are accommodations for 268 inmates, the present number in the home. Of these, 144 are men and 124 women. To be eligible for admittance to the home, the women must either be 60 years of age and homeless, or if under that age, unusually helpless. The home is unsectarian in its work, though it happens that most of the inmates are Irish Catholics. The ages of the women range from 50 to 100 years.

During the year there were 34 deaths, 15 of which were women. The number admitted during the year depends upon the number of vacancies produced by deaths. During the year 34 new inmates were received into the home, 15 of whom were women.

The home is supported mostly by daily collections in food, money, etc., made by the Sisters in person.

BLIND GIRLS' HOME.

The Blind Girls' home, now located at 1828 Wash street, was organized in the year 1878 by a few blind girls, the Blind Girls' Industrial band. These girls were about to finish their eight years' time allowed them by law in the State Blind institution, and were impressed with the necessity for providing themselves with a home after leaving the institution. They accordingly gave a series of entertainments and concerts, the proceeds of which, together with those from the sale of crochet, tatting, knitting, etc., and the help given them by church ladies and others, enabled them to realize a sufficient amount with which to organize their Home.

The Home was opened with four girls from the asylum, which number was soon increased by the addition of three other blind women from different parts of the State. After the Home had been in existence for two years, it was taken in charge by the ladies of the Christian association, under whose supervision the Home has since remained.

There are at present eleven inmates in the Home, three of whom clothe themselves by selling crochet and tatting made by themselves. Two of the blind women in the Home can cut and fit and sew on machines. These two make their own clothing and that of some others in the Home.

The house contains ten rooms, five of which are sleeping apartments occupied each by two or three women. The house is furnished plainly but comfortably. Inmates seem cheerful and contented.

INDUSTRIAL AND EDUCATIONAL UNION.

General Office and Temporary Home, 1517 Olive street.

This institution was opened during the first week in September 1891. Its object is the elevation, protection, development and improvement of wage-workers and their surroundings, by concerted and co-operative efforts.

For $1 per year, wage-workers may become members of this Union and avail themselves of its many advantages. These advantages comprise the educational classes, use of reading-room and library, weekly lectures and concerts, employment bureau, gymnasium, etc. In addition to these, legal proceedings will be furnished for a small fee or free to members in trouble; a directory of suitable boarding places, etc., and suitable arrangements made in summer for those desiring a short rest in the country at small expense.

A limited number of young women or girls who are working for small wages, or are seeking employment, can secure lodgings at 1517 Olive St., at from 75 cents to $1 per week, with use of laundry, also of kitchen with its gas stoves and cooking utensils. Also, working girls who desire to come from their work direct to classes or lectures can have use of gas stoves, etc., to make a warm meal for themselves.

The Matron of the home will always be ready to give counsel and guidance to those wanting same.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' HOME FOR WORKING WOMEN.

At 1307 Washington avenue, a comfortable and refined home for working women has been provided by ten of the "King's Daughters." This home is designed for those working women who are in straightened circumstances and whose earnings are small. At present the home consists of only 8 rooms, 5 of which are bed-rooms. The entire house has been furnished more than comfortably at the expense of these ten "King's Daughters." The pictures, decorations of various kinds, plants, ornaments, etc., with which all the rooms are supplied, give an air of refinement and culture such as is seldom seen in the usual working woman's home, the refining influence of which can not but produce a soothing and refining effect upon the tired and heart-sick working woman.

The two pleasant home-like sitting rooms, which will hereafter serve also for class-rooms, are for the use of the girls of the home, together with the library of well-chosen books donated to the home by friends. Each room is occupied by two or three women, who are allowed to do light housekeeping, using gasoline or oil stove for cooking purposes. The room rent for each woman is $2.50 per month, and fuel for heating the rooms is supplied without extra charge.

The women are required to put their rooms in order before leaving in the morning, and so thoroughly do they perform this duty that there are no indications of light housekeeping being done in the rooms. The home opened on the 14th of February, 1891, with 6 women, which number has since been increased to 11.

Occupations of women now in the house :

BOARDING AND LODGING HOME FOR WORKING WOMEN

A boarding and lodging home for working women whose earnings are below the average, was started during the last week in July, by Mrs. Moise, of this city.

The rates for board charged in the working women's homes of St. Louis are usually above what is earned by many working women, and this home is designed by Mrs. Moise to reach such as these—those whose earnings do not exceed $12 and $15 per month.

The women can board or lodge, whichever they prefer, and they will be charged according to their earnings; $2.50 per week will be the highest charged for board and lodging, and $2.50 per month the highest for a room without board, with two and three in a room.

A house of ten rooms at 3242 Olive street has been rented and put in charge of a Matron. Two rooms have been furnished with donations and are occupied by three working women, two of whom sew in a factory and one works in a book-bindery.

A library and reading-room for use of the working women, with the privilege of attending evening sewing and educational classes, will be features of this home.

It is not expected that the home will be self-sustaining. Liberal subscriptions, together with donations for furnishing the house, will be depended upon to make the home a success at its inception.

CHRIST CHURCH UNION HOUSE,

A temporary house for working women, at 1531 Washington avenue, is in charge of "Sister Eliza," of the Episcopalian Sisterhood.

Charge for board is $2 per week. Number of boarders in the house at one time, 6. Total number in the house during the year, 35. The women who board here represent all occupations—book-keepers, factory girls, etc.

If a woman has no money, no charge is made for board. The house contains nine rooms, one of which is used as school-room. The rooms are poorly furnished.

The rent of the house has been met by generous contributions from church women of the city.

Receipts for the year 1890 were $681.36. Disbursements the same.

NIGHT REFUGE FOR WOMEN AND PROTECTION FOR SERVANT GIRLS.

On 22d and Morgan streets the Sisters of St. Joseph's Convent of Mercy provide a temporary home for women and children. This home comprises three classes:

1. The Night Refuge, which supplies a supper, night's lodging and breakfast, all free of charge, to any honest woman in need of the same. Any woman who is known to be disreputable is not received here, but is sent to the Good Shepherd. Strangers in the city obtain knowledge of this place through inquiring of the police and others who may happen to know of this refuge, also by means of a printed notice in the waiting room of the Union depot.

2. House of Mercy, where women out of employment are provided with a home until they can obtain something to do. These women work for their board. This second class also includes children whose parents are temporarily unable to provide them with homes. Parents who are destitute pay nothing for the home and care given their children, and others pay what little they can afford. These children are kept here until their parents are able to pay for their board or reclaim them. At present there are 30 children in this department.

3. Servants' Protection. Board $2.50 per week for servants out of employment, but able to pay for their board. In connection with this department is an employment agency for servant girls.

Following is a statistical report for the year 1890 :

|                                        |       |
|----------------------------------------|-------|
| Admitted to Female Night Refuge.....   | 3,255 |

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION HOME

Situated on Eighth and Marion Sts., is a Catholic institution organized four years ago. Is non-sectarian in its work. Here, women out of employment and women who desire to take a rest may find a home and shelter, and be helped to secure employment. It is also a house of mercy, where women may leave their children temporarily until they can find a better place for them.

Those who are not able to pay for their board can work for it, doing no more than they are able, while those who have any means are expected to pay what they can afford. Board is from $3 to $5 per week. Women who seek a shelter here during the year are occupied variously as stenographers, dress-makers, servants, etc.

Number of women in the Home during the year, 30.

Number obtaining employment during year, 25.

Number now in the Home, 5.

THE FRANCOISCAN SISTERS' HOME.

Similar in character to the Immaculate Conception Home is the home for unemployed women at 1234 North Fourteenth street, adjoining Pius Hospital.

There are accommodations in this place for only twenty-five women, but as they are coming and going, the total number of working women finding a home here during the year numbers from 253 to 289. All classes of working women are represented among the boarders—stenographers, book-keepers, shop girls, factory women and servants.

Those who are not able to pay any board are allowed to remain free of charge, helping with the work around the house; others pay according to what they can afford, ranging from $2.00 and $3.50 to $5.00 per week.

HOME FOR UNEMPLOYED GIRLS.

At 1234 North Fourteenth street is another home for unemployed women, a Catholic institution, but non-sectarian in its work.

Those who board here pay according to what they can afford—from $2.00 to $3.50 per week—and those who are not able to pay any board help with the work about the house.

The occupations of the women who avail themselves of this home are various, consisting of stenographers, office clerks, saleswomen, factory women and servant girls. The number of women who make this their home during the year ranges from 250 to 289, but they are coming and going. Never more than twenty-five can be accommodated in the home at one time.

TRAVELERS' AID DEPARTMENT.

Depot work was inaugurated in the fall of 1890 by the Women's Christian Association. The public has long felt the necessity of placing at the Union depot a woman to look after and help inexperienced girls and women continually arriving at that station, perfectly ignorant of the temptations of a large city, and who, without money or friends, start out to seek their fortunes. At the station, in the street, even on the train, people are waiting to lure them from virtuous lives.

A woman of the requisite qualifications has been employed and stationed at the Union depot, and assigned given duties as the representative of the Travelers' Aid department. It is the duty of this agent to approach all women who seem strangers (especially young ones), talk to them, direct them, and even to go with them herself and so be sure they are under proper care. To those who come without money or friends the doors of the Women's Christian Home, Training School, Girls' Industrial Home and White Cross Home have kindly opened, and the stranger is sent to the one best adapted to her condition and needs.

Actuated by a humane spirit and armed with Christian love, this agent has been of great service to many persons who needed the presence, counsel and influence of woman. A little assistance and counsel have gladdened many a sad heart, and cheered them on their way. Letters have been written to chief officers of the different roads asking them if they would allow the Association the privilege of putting circulars into the hands of conductors for distribution on their trains. These letters were answered, and with the exception of two roads, permission given.

In the northwest corner of the waiting room in the Union depot a space for the agent of the Travelers' Aid department has been courteously diagramed by Dr. Taussig. The officials and employes at the depot have one and all kindly tried to aid the Matron in her work.

THE MATRON AT THE FOUR COURTS.

Mrs. Harris, Matron at the Four Courts, has charge of the women and children brought here by the police. For the last eight years only has there been a Police Matron. The idea in having a Matron was to give her charge of the women, that she might search their persons—this work having formerly been performed by men.

Mrs. Harris had been here but a short time, however, when she discovered that there was a large field to work in. Up to last September she had to attend to all the cases that Mrs. Frazier, Depot Matron, now disposes of; besides which were other duties. At 8:30 every morning she visits the women prisoners and sees that they are washed and combed and decently dressed before they make their appearance in the court-room. If she has reason to believe that a woman is sincere in her desire to reform, she uses her influence with the judge to allow the woman to be sent to some institution or home that is especially adapted for her particular needs. She also disposes of the children of drunken mothers, and sometimes of the mothers themselves.

All the children brought here by the police are disposed of by advice of the Matron, who sends them to homes and asylums and holds some for adoption. In fact, she investigates the needs of all under her charge, doing for them everything that can be done to reform them and help them to better lives and conditions.

So great has been the change for the better effected since a Matron has been in charge at the Four Courts, that properly speaking, the cases that came here before Mrs. Harris had charge of women are here no more; there has been a gradual reformation.

In the last two years—

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE.

The Woman's Exchange of St. Louis was established in 1884. The object of this institution is to provide a depot for the reception and exchange of any marketable article that any woman may make in her home and desire to dispose of. The Woman's Exchange is an agency through which those who sell may find those who buy. The sales-room at 617 Locust street is the depot in which to exhibit, dispose of and create a demand for women's work, both artistic and industrial.

During the first year of its existence, no commission was charged on sales, only an entrance fee being required. But what has been proved the better plan of charging commission, 10 per cent on all sales, has been established for the last two years.

During the eight years of its existence, the returns to those who have sought the benefit of the Woman's Exchange have amounted to over $75,000. During the year 1891 $3,632.35 have been received for goods sold through this exchange, for which $358.68 commission was charged, leaving for the consignors $3,273.67.

Connected with the exchange is a restaurant and lunch room, which, besides bringing in a revenue, serves as a medium for disposing of and advertising the various contributions to the culinary department. The proceeds from this restaurant for the year 1891 amounted to $11,868.71, which sum represents meals to the number of 75,000 partaken of principally by industrial women.

The library for the use of industrial women, free of charge, has issued from October, 1890, to May, 1891, 4,223 books. Through the Employment bureau, where women seeking work of a domestic nature may apply, there have been secured situations for 108 women. The applicants for employment during the year 1891 numbered 209.

Following are rules governing the Exchange :

RULES.

1. The annual subscription is $5, and the year is counted from April 1st to April 1st. This entitles each subscriber to five tickets, upon which to enter the work of five persons for one year. Additional tickets may be issued to any active member of the Exchange by application to the President.

This rule does not apply to subscribers to the building fund.

2. No one established in business can become a beneficiary of this Exchange, and all questions as to the eligibility of applicants must be referred to the Store committee.

3. All work must be entered upon a subscriber's ticket, and cannot be placed on sale until examined and approved by the Store committee.

4. Each consignor's ticket will be numbered, which number shall represent her name upon the books of the Exchange, and must be given in all business letters.

5. Each article sent for sale or as sample of order work must be marked with the consignor's number, the date of entry and the price desired. In order to promote sales, it is recommended that prices should not be above the market value.

6. On and after April 1, 1889, ten per cent will be charged on all sales made and on price paid for order work.

7. Articles deposited can not be removed under thirty days, except in the culinary department. After articles have been on sale six months, the depositors will be notified of unsold articles, which must then be removed immediately at the owner's expense. No article can be re-entered.

8. All such articles remaining at the end of one year from time of entry will be sold for the benefit of the Exchange.

9. No perishable articles, such as wax, feathers, hair and card-board work will be received. No worsted goods, except when ordered, will be received between May 1 and October 1. No preserved fruit received before September 1 or after April 1.

10. Having taken all reasonable precaution against fire, moth and theft, the Exchange does not hold itself responsible for any losses.

11. All transportation charges and all risks for same must be assumed by consignors. No article will be registered until these charges have been paid.

12. Orders for work and edibles are especially desired. They will be given to those best qualified to execute them, and such consignors will be required to hold themselves in readiness to respond promptly, unless inability has been previously agreed upon.

13. All applications to place on sale articles of personal property, which ladies are compelled by necessity to dispose of, must be referred to the Board of Managers, and are then received under the same rules as govern other consignments.

14. All letters must be addressed to the Woman's Exchange, 617 Locust street St. Louis, Mo., with stamp enclosed for reply.

15. The members of the Store committee, to whom all questions of consignments are referred, and by whom all work is examined, will be found at the Exchange every Wednesday and Saturday from 10 a. m. to 12 m.

16. The Exchange is open to consignors from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., and work may be left any day subject to the foregoing rules.

FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

All applicants for situations or employment of any kind are registered free of all charge; but in order to maintain a high standard in this department, all applicants must present to the Committee on Employment satisfactory references from last employer, or from some one known to the Board of Managers.

THE ST. LOUIS PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION.

This association was organized in 1860, and incorporated in 1863. The design of the association is the elevation of the moral and physical condition of the indigent, and so far as it is compatible with the design, the relief of their necessities.

This association is kept up principally by regular collections made by a thorough canvass of the different districts of the city.

The depot for the district north of Market street is situated on 18th and Madison streets; for the district south of Market street, the depot is 1901 South 12th street.

For the year 1890, out of 1,398 families assisted by this association, 938 were women and heads of families; 679 of these women were wash-women and 162 needle-women. The reasons why aid was required were various: on account of small children, inability to get work, amount paid for work not sufficient to live on, sickness, misfortune, desertion and old age.

MISSOURI BAPTIST SANITARIUM.*TAYLOR AVE., NEAR DELMAR.

This institution was started by Dr. W. H. Mayfield, at his own home, in North St. Louis, in 1884. A few friends afterward associated themselves with Dr. Mayfield as a "Managing Board," and finally it was decided to rent a larger house where more unfortunates could be cared for. In 1887 the present house was rented for $100 a month and occupied, the doctor's friends agreeing to provide for the rent and he for the running expenses of the institution. Since then the work has grown rapidly and a building fund of $40,000 has been raised by subscriptions among the friends of the sanitarium. The new building is to be built on the present site.

The house now occupied is an old mansion situated on a fine lot and in an excellent part of the city. There are three varieties of water on the grounds and a pleasant lawn with fine shade-trees.

The services of competent surgeons and physicians, as well as those of Dr. Mayfield and his wife, are given gratuitously. There are accommodations in the present building for only 20 patients, and crowded at that. Patients are charged $1 a day for board. A few pay a little more for extra room and care, but many also pay less. It is not the purpose of the institution to give medical treatment free of charge to people that are able to pay. All that can pay do so, but those that cannot pay have the best treatment without charge. The house is self-supporting.

Though a Baptist institution, anyone, no matter of what denomination, may enjoy its benefits. The benefits of the institution may be stated thus:

1. It affords a good religious home for those that are able to pay for board and treatment.
2. It affords a good religious home for those that are able to pay for board, but not able to pay a large sum for medical treatment.
3. It affords a good religious home for those that are only able to pay board, but are unable to pay for medical treatment.
4. It affords a good religious home for those that are utterly destitute and unable to pay anything for board or treatment.

During the last three years 629 patients have been treated in the present house. Three-fourths of this number have been women. Each patient remains in the house only from one to two months. Many of the patients have boarded outside and have received treatment at the sanitarium. Out of 600 cases only 7 deaths have occurred. Some who have come here broken down financially, as well as physically, have been provided with employment when restored to health.

THE WHITE CROSS HOME

The White Cross Home is a reformatory home to shelter and aid tempted and betrayed women, and to redeem the fallen.

Two-thirds of the inmates of this Home have been domestic servants; the remainder have never worked at anything. Many are from the country. They remain here usually about three months after their time of trial. While in the Home they take part in the daily religious devotions and are encouraged in every way to acquire spiritual strength of character, and with it a willingness and desire to become useful members of society and to do their part in the work of life.

This Home has been in existence only three years, having been opened Feb. 22, 1888, on which day one girl presented herself, beseeching for shelter. The house is an old residence of 12 rooms loaned by charitable friends for the uses to which the home is devoted; 8 rooms are bed-rooms, which were furnished by contributions from friends. The accommodations are inadequate for the needs of the Home.

The Home derives its support from donations in money, food and clothing; also from annual subscriptions by associate and active members who are friends of the Home. The house-work is performed by the Matron and those of the inmates who are strong enough to work. Medical services are given gratuitously by women physicians resident in the city.

During its existence the home has sheltered—

Before leaving the Home, most of the women sign the temperance pledge, and all take the White Shield Pledge.

WHITE SHIELD PLEDGE.

1. To uphold the law of purity as equally binding upon men and women.
2. To be modest in language, behavior and dress.
3. To avoid all conversation, reading, pictures and amusement which may put impure thoughts in my mind.
4. To guard the purity of others, especially of the young.
5. To strive after the special blessing promised to the pure in heart.

THE INSTITUTIONAL MISSION HOME.

This Home, an extremely humble little place at 3919 South Boardway, was founded some four years ago by Mrs. Page, at that time President of the Institutional Mission, and has continued ever since under the management of the ladies of this mission.

The object and aim of this Home are the same as those of the White Cross Home, but the methods are in some respects different. It is not a lying-in institution, and the mothers are expected to keep their babies and take them with them wherever they go. It is thought that to encourage the mother love will do much toward making the woman better instead of worse on account of trouble; and the results of this method would prove that this is correct.

The little dwelling, given them temporarily, has but four bed-rooms for the accommodation of the inmates, and is extremely poverty-stricken in appearance. The Home is kept in existence by means of subscriptions, donations and pound parties; but the over-worked Matron, notwithstanding her energy and economical management, has a hard struggle to provide the inmates with the comforts of life.

The average age of the inmates is from 16 to 20 years.

Number of inmates in the home during the year, 51.

Number of infants, 27.

Number of girls sent to their homes during the year, 10.

Number of girls provided with employment during the year, 40.

The women and their babies are kept here until they are sent home or until employment is procured for them.

The Institutional Mission Board consists of a number of ladies who visit the city institutions every two weeks, distributing reading matter and holding religious services.

THE CONVENT OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

The order known as the "Good Shepherd" had its origin in France, where it was established by the Ven. John Endes in 1641. The principal object of the order is the reformation of fallen women. It also protects children who are in danger by reason of their own evil tendencies, their destitution or the incompetency of parents.

In 1842 the order of the Good Shepherd was introduced into the United States by the Right Rev. B. J. Flaget, and the first house was opened at Louisville, Kentucky, September 8, 1842. From this house a colony of sisters were sent to St. Louis, Mo., in January, 1849. A square of ground situated on Seventeenth and Pine streets was donated by Mme. Anna Lucas Hunt, and the Most Rev. Archbishop P. B. Kendrick erected suitable buildings upon it. These have since then been greatly enlarged to accommodate the four "classes" they at present contain.

1. "The Sisters of the Good Shepherd," among whom none are admitted except ladies who have always led pure, irreproachable lives.

2. "The Magdalens," or those who wish to lead lives of strict retirement and penance. Among these, women who have fallen from virtue may be admitted, when they give signs of true repentance.

3. "The Preservation Children," or young persons in danger of contamination.

4. "The Penitents," or women and girls who have led depraved lives and are to be reformed.

The report for 1890 shows that since the opening of this institution in 1849 there have been admitted:

| Total.....                                           |       | 411   |

The total number of inmates for 1891 is over 400, of which number 20 are children. A few only of these children are orphans. Many are of respectable parentage.

The number of inmates received per year average between 200 and 300, and the same number leave, including deaths. The average age of those in the reformatory class is 14 years. A few in this class are as young as 12 and 13 years; the majority, however, are 16 and 17 years of age, others are 50, 60 and 70 years of age, but these latter are mostly those who have made this house their home for a great many years.

After 21 years of age compulsory detention of inmates is not allowed. As soon as an inmate reaches that age she can leave or remain as she pleases, but if she remains she must observe the rules of the house. One-half of the number now in the house are of age. Of those who enter the Convent of the Good Shepherd, 75 per cent reform before leaving the place.

The girls and women within the walls are trained under the guidance of the Sisters in the various branches of female industry. The house is self-supporting, sufficient being earned by the women in sewing, chair-caning and laundrying to supply food and clothing for all. Three hundred charitable citizens of St. Louis also help with their annual subscriptions.

The crowded condition of the present quarters necessitated the purchase of grounds in the western suburbs of the city, on which grounds are being erected suitable buildings for the accommodation of the inmates. For this outlay the Sisters have incurred a debt of $54,000.

BETHESDA.

On Ninth and Russell avenue, is a shelter for homeless and aged women and abandoned or neglected infants. This home is kept up in the same way as the orphanage of the faith-renowned George Muller of Bristol, England, by faith alone. It has no endowment nor fixed income and nothing is solicited, yet the treasury is never empty.

The home was founded in June, 1889, by Mrs. Hayne, of St. Louis, whose original idea was to provide a temporary shelter for women with babes in arms just out of the female hospital. She started the home with only $140 and a great amount of faith. During the first year over $3,000 was sent to the home from unexpected sources without solicitation from the lady managers.

During the first year of its existence, shelter was provided for 117 women, 24 of whom were mothers with babes in arms given a home here until they could be returned to their friends or provided with employment. During the first six months 37 infants were taken into the home, 10 mothers and 7 old women. During the year nine of the infants were adopted into families. There are now 29 babies in the home and 18 women. Nine of the latter are aged women who would be compelled to seek shelter in the poor-house if not admitted here. Twenty babies are the number that can be accommodated and properly attended to in the present quarters.

The home is non-sectarian. All that is required of applicants is that they shall be in need and desire to lead a Christian life.

Every effort is used to foster and encourage the love of the mothers for their offspring and to induce them to stay and nurse them for one year. The child can then be left at the home till the mother is able to support it.

The building of fourteen rooms is furnished comfortably and presents a cosy, home-like appearance. The food furnished the inmates, though not of great variety, is of the best quality. The workers in the home—matron and servants—receive no salaries. All, from the matron down, work for love.

Following is copy of rules of the home, tacked on outside of front door:

1. All young mothers are received here who are willing, with full purpose of heart, to lead a true life, laying aside every false way.
2. All mothers shall be employed in useful labor suited to their capacity, but no unnecessary work will be allowed on the Sabbath.
3. The rising bell shall be rung at 5:30 a. m. from the first of April to the first of October, and during the rest of the year at 6 a. m., and all are expected to rise, excepting in case of sickness.
4. Breakfast will be served promptly at 7 o'clock, dinner at 12:30 and supper at 6. Lights must be put out at 9:30, except in rooms where there is sickness.
5. All are expected to appear in the dining-room at the time for meals, neatly dressed and seated before the blessing is asked by the Matron.
6. The mothers shall not be absent from family worship, or the religious services held in the home and in the church, unless excused by the Matron.
7. No letters, books or other articles can be received or sent by the mothers until examined by the Matron, and mothers are strictly forbidden to converse with each other upon the important events in their past history.
8. Relatives and friends of the mothers can visit them on Thursdays between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m., their visits not to exceed a half hour, and in the presence of the Matron.
9. No improper language nor loud talking allowed in the home.
10. The inmates will not be allowed to absent themselves from the home without the consent of the Matron.

"No one admitted who has been where there is a contagious disease."

THE HOUSE OF REFUGE

Is a city institution for the reformation and protection of children under 15 years of age. Both the innocent and the bad are picked up by the police and sent to this institution by the proper authorities. Many others are sent here by their parents as incorrigible. All in the institution receive instruction in the common English branches and learn to do different kinds of work. They are kept here until of age, discharged or claimed by their parents. It is endeavored to keep the innocent separated from those that are bad.

Most of the girls in the House of Refuge have been abandoned by their parents or thrown out of their homes on account of their parents being sent to the hospital. Many have been found in the streets, selling matches and flowers, or begging, and have been sent here on account of the bad influences to which they were exposed.

There are now 74 girls in this institution, of which number 25 are colored. The youngest girl is 6 years old, the oldest 18.

Number of girls received this year 33; average age 14; 22 white and 11 colored.

Number of girls discharged during the past year, 32. Of these 32, homes were found for 7; average age 14; and 25 were claimed by their parents; average age 14.

The average period of time spent by inmates in this institution, 16 months.

Of the 33 girls received last year:

7 colored and 6 white were incorrigible; average age, 13.

2 colored and 1 white were found in houses of prostitution; average age, 14.

2 colored were found thieving; average age, 14.

1 colored was disturbing the peace; age, 15.

Total number committing offenses, 19.

6 white were exposed to bad influences; average age, 11.

8 white were without homes; average age, 10.

Total number neglected and homeless, 14.

Total number received in institution during the year 1890, 33.

The buildings are large and well ventilated, and furnished with modern conveniences in the way of water closets and large tanks, the latter for bathing purposes. Dormitories are well ventilated and furnished with iron bedsteads with clean bedding. Meals are nourishing and appetizing. Cruel punishment no longer allowed in the institution.

THE MASONIC HOME OF MISSOURI.

The Masonic Home of Missouri, situated near Forest park, on the Lindell railway line, consists of a large ten-room house, with frame addition and 15 acres of land, the latter including orchard and vineyard. This place was bought by the Free Masons of Missouri and established some two years ago as a home for the orphans of Masons. For one year the home has been open to the impoverished widows, also, of Masons in good standing, and latterly to the Masons themselves—those in need of a home.

The house is furnished very comfortably and provided with everything necessary to make a pleasant and comfortable home for the inmates. The children are educated, and when of age, provided with employment. All—men, women and children—are provided with clothing and other things that are necessary to their well-being.

Up to this year the Home has been maintained by voluntary subscriptions from Masons in different parts of the State, together with income derived from other sources. By a late order of the society of Free Masons, every member in the State must contribute 50 cents per year toward the support of this Home. Estimating the total number of Masons in this State at 30,000, the Home will have $15,000 from this source alone.

Children are admitted from 4 to 15 years of age. There are at present 38 children in the Home and 7 widows. The ages of the widows in the home range from 28 to 79 years. Widows of all ages are admitted. No men, as yet, have come to the Home.

Several new buildings of adequate size will soon be erected for the separate accommodation of men, women and children; also a building for school purposes exclusively.

SOUTH SIDE DAY NURSERY,

Situated on Tenth and Julia street, is a convenient building of ten rooms, belonging to the South Side Day Nursery Association, where children are cared for and fed while their mothers are at work.

“The object of this nursery is to prevent pauperism by assisting bread-winners with young children on their hands to earn an honest living.” Any honest working woman, by paying 5 cents per child per day, can have her children cared for in this nursery. If she has no money, some lady belonging to this association will pay it for her.

The majority of the women availing themselves of this privilege are women who go out by the day washing, scrubbing or cleaning; others are women who work in factories. A matron and two assistants care for the children in this nursery.

When the children are brought to the nursery in the morning, their own clothes are taken off them and put out doors to air; they are then bathed, and dressed in clothes belonging to the nursery. At 9:30 they are given a lunch of bread and milk, at noon a nourishing dinner, and at 4 o'clock another lunch of bread and milk. In the evening, when their mothers call for them, they are dressed again in their own clothes.

The smallest attendance in a day is 12, the largest 40. Mondays and Tuesdays are the busiest days. The ages of the children cared for are from 3 weeks to 8 years. Those that are 7 years of age are sent to the nearest kindergarten, being cared for before and after school hours and given their meals during the day. Those 8 years of age are sent to school and also cared for outside of school hours. During the summer months the children are taken to the park, if possible, one day every week.

Following is taken from annual report for 1890:

On one day 40 children were present at the nursery. The record shows the following attendances by months:

|                 |     |                      |       |
|-----------------|-----|----------------------|-------|
| 1889. May ..... | 620 | 1889. December ..... | 507   |
| June.....       | 590 | 1890. January.....   | 482   |
| July .....      | 613 | February .....       | 542   |
| August .....    | 577 | March .....          | 612   |
| September.....  | 633 | April.....           | 675   |
| October.....    | 587 | Total.....           | 6,938 |
| November .....  | 500 |                      |       |

The footings for the previous years show how our work has grown:

|               |        |        |        |         |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|---------|
| Year.....     | 1886-7 | 1887-8 | 1888-9 | 1889-90 |
| Attendances.. | 2,444  | 4,188  | 4,395  | 6,938   |

COST PER CHILD PER DAY.

We have reason to congratulate ourselves on our year's work. We have had many more children than ever and yet our net expenses have been less. The gross expenses for the nursery proper are shown to be \$1,513.64. The money paid by the mothers, 5 cents per day per child, amounted to \$340.75; subtracting this from our total expense and dividing by the number of day attendances, we have 16 $\frac{1}{2}$  cents as the net cost per child per day to the nursery.

The economy of the past year's work is shown by comparison :

| 1886-7   | 1887-8   | 1888-9  | 1889-90             |
|----------|----------|---------|---------------------|
| 33½ cts. | 29½ cts. | 28 cts. | 16⅞ cts. per child. |

It is doubtful if the last figures can be improved upon, even now that we have no more rent to pay.

It is fitting that we should stop a moment to consider the peculiar benefit which an institution like this confers upon the laboring poor. Every 16⅞ cents contributed to the support of the nursery, means that a mother has been free to earn a day's wages. To be sure, in some cases a mother brings more than one child, but as a rule, less than 30 cents spent on a child represents $1 earned by the parent. That is to say, we spend 30 cents on her children, while the mother earns a dollar for the support of her home. How greatly superior this is to the system of charity which would half support both mother and child in idleness. As we said in a former report, the day nursery is an institution which multiplies all sums received. Instead of spending one-half of all we get in expensive machinery, the mothers actually have the benefit of every cent of what is contributed.

DAY NURSERY AND MISSION HOME AND SCHOOL.

Another day nursery is in the northern portion of the city, situated on Ninth and Wash streets, started since April, '91. It is under the auspices of the ladies of the Church of the Messiah, who have had a Mission Home and School in this same spot for the last ten years. This was the first free school west of the Mississippi, founded in 1840 by the Rev. Dr. Eliot.

This place has been a permanent home for children whose mothers have abandoned them, or a temporary home for children whose mothers have left them here only until they were better able to take care of them. Many mothers have been enabled in this way to obtain employment in families.

The object of the day school has been to keep children off the streets, the inducement being a warm dinner. It is for those who are not old enough to attend public school, or have been so neglected that they are ashamed to attend school; these latter are 14 and 15 years of age.

There are now 43 children in the home, and an average daily attendance of 40 for the school and nursery. The home and day school have been free to all, but for the day nursery 5 and sometimes 10 cents per day has been charged. The mothers are women who do washing, ironing and cleaning in families, work in factories and other places.

Ages of children in the Home school during the year 1890:

1 of fourteen years.
 1 of thirteen.
 1 of twelve.
 4 of eleven.
 3 of ten.
 14 of eight.

15 of six years.
 15 of five.

O'FALLON PARK SANITARIUM.

A sanitarium for mothers with sick babies is situated in O'Fallon park. This sanitarium was opened some three years ago, and has been carried on in connection with the fresh air excursions for mothers with sick children. Indigent mothers with sick children, by applying to the proper authorities, can be sent to the sanitarium, where they are allowed to remain with their children for two weeks at least, or as much longer as is deemed necessary, with medical attendance supplied. The mother is expected to attend to her children and room and do her own washing, and no charges are made for board, lodging and medical attendance.

The park is 165 acres in extent, occupying a height that overlooks the surrounding country, and insures air that is health-invigorating to the small patients. The building occupied by the mothers and their children is the old O'Fallon mansion, containing 13 bed-rooms. The summer season for the sanitarium begins in June and continues on through September. As many as 18 mothers and 35 children have been accommodated here at one time. During the remainder of the year the sanitarium serves as a boarding place for children whose mothers are worthless, or morally and physically unfit to care for their children. The fathers of these children pay for their board, which is from $3 to $15 per month, the charge varying according to the means of the father. There are now 16 little ones boarding here. The children of drunken mothers are sent to this place through the recommendation of Mrs. Harris, Police Matron.

THE ST. LOUIS CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL (HOMŒOPATHIC).

This free hospital for children was opened with two patients at 2834 Franklin avenue, in October, 1879. Since 1885, however, the hospital has been located at Jefferson avenue and Adams street. The expenses of the hospital are sustained by annual and voluntary subscriptions, a small endowment fund, income derived from entertainments, etc.; besides there are donations of various kinds.

Though a free hospital, those who are able and willing may help by paying whatever they can afford. In this way, different amounts have been paid for patients—$1, $1.50, $2, $5, $6, $10 and $20 per month, and some occasionally give donations in the shape of clothing, groceries, fruit, etc. But three-fourths of the patients are not paid for.

The mothers of two-thirds of the children are working women—wash-women, domestics, workers in factories, etc. Half of the mothers are separated from their husbands, others have unfortunate or worthless husbands, and some are widows.

There are accommodations in the hospital for 50 children. Children between the ages of 2 and 14 years are received as patients, though exceptions are sometimes made in favor of older children. One-third of the children now in the hospital are between the ages of 2 and 5 years.

Besides the Matron, there are two day and two night nurses. Medical attendance is gratuitously rendered by some of the best surgeons and physicians in the city.

MARTHA PARSONS HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN.

This free hospital for children is situated on Channing avenue and School street. When first established, in 1884, it was known as the Augusta Free Hospital for Children, but has since changed its name on account of a legacy given with the name of Martha Parsons.

None but charity patients are received in this hospital, and patients must be between 2 and 14 years of age, though exceptions are sometimes made to this rule.

At present time (July) there are 19 patients in the hospital—5 between 2 and 14, 12 between 5 and 12, and 2 that are 16 years of age. There are accommodations for 20 children. The appearance and arrangement of everything about the hospital resembles more that of a beautiful home than an institution of any kind.

The hospital is supported by voluntary, annual and life subscriptions, also by legacies.

The mothers of one-half the children are struggling working women, mostly seamstresses.

During the past year 123 cases have been treated, out of which number 1 has died and 19 cases remain in the hospital. Medical attendance is given gratuitously, same as in other hospitals.

THE ASSOCIATION FOR THE PROTECTION OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

This association was established in April, 1891. Its uses are similar to those of the Associated Charitable Workers. The object of the association is to protect women and children against impositions of every kind and provide them with all needed help. Working women's wages, when unlawfully withheld, are collected for them by this association, and women who are liable to lose furniture and sewing machines on which they have made partial or total payments, are protected against such swindling. Homes are found for women and children in need of the same; employment provided for women who are able to work; care in hospital provided for women who are unable to defray medical expenses.

The association has no particular headquarters, but most of the business has been transacted by the Matron of the Four Courts.

THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

This society was established about thirty years ago. There are in this city about fifty parishes, in each of which the work of this society is carried on. The work consists in helping the needy in various ways, providing them with employment, clothing, food, fuel, medicine or shelter. All who are in need of assistance, whether men, women or children, are aided by this society, and among the number receiving assistance are working women who, from sickness or misfortune, are unable to temporarily provide themselves with the necessaries of life.

The society is maintained by voluntary contributions from members. There are forty active members.

ST. PHILOMENA'S INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

This school and home for orphan girls, situated on Summit and Clark avenue, is under the management of the Sisters of Charity, and has been situated in the preset locality for 22 years. It was established, however, 40 or 50 years ago. Girls who have reached the age of 12 or 14 are sent here from the Orphan Asylum at Tenth and Biddle streets. They are taught dress-making and plain sewing, and kept here until they are able to earn their living, then are provided with situations.

There are 30 girls in the home from 12 to 15, and 35 girls from 15 to 20 years of age. Total number of girls now in home, 65.

During the year, about 10 girls leave the school to join their relatives or take situations as seamstresses in families. The same number are received into the institution during the year.

GUARDIAN ANGEL PROTECTORATE,

Situated at 1029 Marion street, is a Catholic institution, though non-sectarian in its work. It is for the protection and education of young girls between the ages of 14 and 17, who have no homes or whose parents are too poor or incompetent to give them proper training and protection; also for girls whose parents are able to pay a trifle for their education. These girls are instructed in all kinds of needle work as well as house-work, that they may be able to earn their living when they leave the home. They are kept here as long as they wish to remain, which is generally until they are 21 years of age, then they are helped to situations.

The home is self-supporting, the girls doing dress-making and other sewing for the outside world.

THE INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY.

This school and home for girls, situated in Normandy, a suburb of St. Louis, was established in 1883, and was for a time a branch of the Good Shepherd of this city. It is not a reformatory, but is a home and school of training for orphan girls and those whose parents are not proper guardians or who cannot or will not educate them. For those who can afford it $10 per month is charged for board and training, but out of 100 girls now in the school there are only ten for whom anything is paid.

They are taught sewing, millinery, laundry work and house-keeping, and those without guardians are kept here until they are competent to earn a living for themselves, then are provided with positions in families, to do sewing and house-work. Some have been here for three and four years.

The house is supposed to be self-supporting, but has not succeeded in so being. The girls while under training earn whatever they can for the support of the institution, taking laundry work from private families and sewing from the city factories. These means of support have been found to be inadequate. The institution is $30,000 in debt.

Last fall, children under 10 years of age, to the number of 30, were sent here from the Good Shepherd in this city, that place being crowded beyond its capacity.

There are now in this institution 15 girls between the ages of 10 and 15 years; 50 girls between the ages of 15 and 19 years; 4 over 19 years of age.

During the last year, 50 girls have been received and 20 have been returned to their guardians or provided with positions.

Connected with this institution, for the purpose of increasing its income, is a boarding department where women can be accommodated with board from $15, $25 and $30 up to $75 per month. There are at present only 4 boarders.

There are two buildings three stories high, supplied with modern conveniences. The situation is healthful and the surroundings delightfully rural.

GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL HOME.

This Home, situated at 718 North Eighteenth street, was organized in 1854 by a number of St. Louis ladies. It is an industrial school and temporary home for destitute children, or children whose parents are for a time unable to provide them with a home. Mothers employed in families can leave their children in this Home until they are so situated as to have their children with them again. Three dollars per month is the usual charge for board if the parent is able to pay anything; otherwise, nothing is charged.

Number of children received during the year, 59.

Number placed in families and returned to friends, 61.

Number now in the house, 60.

The ages of the children received in this Home range from 3 to 17 years. Average age of present inmates is from 3 to 12 years. The children are given instruction in the common English branches and sewing.

HOW TO OBTAIN A CHILD FROM THE HOME.

Any person desiring to take a child from the Home for adoption, or to bring up to maturity, must communicate, in person or by writing, with the First and Second Directress, or some member of the Board, giving a full statement of the circumstances in which the child will be placed if transferred from the Home to his or her care, what position in the family such child will hold, what labor will be required, what advantages for education will be given, and what will be the religious privileges and training.

These facts must always be accompanied with good and satisfactory recommendations, or the requests can receive no attention from the committee charged by the Board with the responsibility of selecting homes for the children.

THE MISSOURI STATE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

This institution, situated on Nineteenth street, between Morgan and Franklin avenue, is a public school where the blind youth of Missouri are admitted for a limited time of 8 or 9 years.

It is supported entirely by appropriations made by the Legislature, and is strictly a State institution. Liberal provision has been made for its maintenance, and the only expense to pupils is for clothing and for railroad fare to and from St. Louis. Board, tuition, books, washing, etc., free.

There are three departments—the literary, music and the work departments. In the work department the girls are taught to sew on machine and by hand, knit, crochet and do a variety of other work. The object of this school is to make the blind of the State self-sustaining.

The conditions of admission are :

1. Bona fide residence in the State.
2. Good mental and physical capacity.
3. Applicants must be over 9 and under 25 years of age. Persons over 25 years of age who are otherwise eligible are admitted to the work department only.

There are now 50 girls in the institution, of which number 3 are colored. Within the last 8 years 150 girls have been educated in this institution. Out of this 150 all but about three girls have had homes to return to.

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM.

This home and school for deaf mutes is a Catholic institution, though non-sectarian in its work, organized in 1885; since which time over 100 deaf mutes have been educated within its walls. The pupils come here from different parts of the State and from other States as well.

Those who can afford to do so pay $15 per month for board, lodging and instruction, but those who are destitute have the same advantages free of charge. If there is no one to take care of them, they can make this their home for life. They receive instruction in the common English branches (with sewing and house-work added for the girls) and the addition of general science, the languages, articulation, music, drawing and printing.

Total number of pupils is 40, of which number 27 are girls and women. Seven of the girls are day pupils. Of the whole number educated here, 5 only are paying pupils.

Ages of the female pupils:

The home is situated at 1849 Cass avenue, is a large, convenient building, surrounded with pleasant grounds of a couple of acres in extent.

FEMALE LABOR ORGANIZATIONS.

There are in St. Louis no labor organizations composed entirely of women, though for a time, several unsuccessful attempts were made to form such unions. There are, however, in St. Louis, between three and four hundred women who belong to the Knights of Labor. They are women of every occupation, professional as well as industrial, and among the factory women the shoe-stitchers have the largest membership.

This organization was established some 18 or 20 years ago, but only for the last 8 or 10 years have women been members. The dues are 25 cents per month. The object of the woman's department of this organization is the elevation of their own sex, morally and intellectually, and to bring about industrial reform.

A general investigator investigates the condition of the working women in different parts of the country and makes her report of the same to the organization, which endeavors through legislation, arbitration, etc., to better the condition of the working women in regard to hours, wages and sanitary conditions. To this investigator are brought tales of injustice, cruelty, low wages, arbitrary dealings, etc., etc., and as far as is possible, endeavors are made to right these wrongs. Another object is to remove the working woman from the possibility of ever requiring charity, to teach her self-reliance and self-respect.

KANSAS CITY.

HOME FOR THE AGED.

The Little Sisters of the Poor have been established for nine years on Springfield avenue and Locust street, in the building formerly occupied by the widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers.

The Sisters bought the building with 10 acres of ground and converted the place into a home for the aged of both sexes. Any respectable woman over 60 years of age, and without home or friends, is received as an inmate of this institution. Those who have any money at all can pay what they can afford, but they are not asked to pay more than $5 per month. Very few, however, pay anything.

Total number that can be accommodated in this home, 140. Present number in home, 137, including men and women. Present number of women in the home, 51. Number received during the year, 24; number that have left during the year, 11. Number that have died, 7.

The institution is supported by charity and depends principally upon the donations in food, etc., given the Sisters in their daily round of begging throughout the city. The old folks have a comfortable home and are well cared for by the Sisters. There are twelve Sisters to care for them.

KANSAS CITY EXCHANGE FOR WOMEN'S WORK.

This Exchange for Women was established in Kansas City seven or eight years ago, and incorporated in 1889 into an organization for benevolent and educational purposes.

The following statements are taken from last report of Exchange for 1889:

Our aim and purpose in organizing the Exchange was to help worthy women to help themselves. To do them good by bettering their condition through their own efforts properly aided and directed. To urge women to go higher and still higher up in the steady move of civilization, and to encourage them by opening a depot for the sale of their wares and well-cooked food of all kinds. But from the inception of our organization we did not mean to stop here, but as time rolled on, to broaden and deepen our work and to open up new avenues for women's self-support and usefulness, and further still, to devise ways and means for the protection of unprotected and friendless girls; to train the unskilled and to educate the ignorant in the industrial pursuits, and to elevate, develop and promote woman's highest and best interests in every available way possible.

When the Kansas City Exchange for Women's Work was organized, its first step was to open a depot for the sale of marketable articles made by women, thus affording them the opportunities of a market for the sale of the products of their labor. In 1887, when we reorganized our Exchange, after a suspension of business for over two years, it was then stated to be not only the object of the Association "to increase fellowship among women in order to promote the best practical methods for securing their educational, industrial and social advancement," but to found a boarding home for young self-dependent girls, which the wants of this class in our city seemed to imperatively demand. With this object and purpose in view, committees were appointed to look up a suitable location. After several weeks of faithful search, one hundred and twenty-three feet of ground was reported for sale at $14,000, on Holmes street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets. Without much hesitation the Exchange decided to purchase the ground. Subscription books were at once opened, and by faithful and enthusiastic work the ladies in a few days collected $5,155.25. To this was added money contributed from other sources, swelling the amount to $7,200, which was paid on the lots, leaving $6,800 to be met in the future.

ARTICLE III OF CONSTITUTION.

The purposes and scope of this corporation shall be to increase fellowship among worthy women and to promote the best practical methods for securing their educational, industrial and social advancement, and to provide the means and opportunities of a better realization of the results of their labor and of disposing of its products; the erection and support of a building or buildings which shall be used and occupied as a home for such worthy self-supporting women as shall be received by the officers, agents or employes of this corporation, at the time in charge thereof.

We have forty-one consignors in the edible department and fifty in fancy work and plain sewing. The greatest difficulty we encountered in the first months of our work was to get our consignors to meet the demand for well-made bread, cake, pies, preserves and food of all kinds. This trouble, to a great extent, has been overcome. The Exchange is now prepared to fill orders for weddings and receptions, and to supply customers at its counters with well-prepared food of all kinds.

To the above could be added several hundred small pans of baked beans, salads, jellies, preserves, pickles, cottage cheese, cheese sticks and many other delicacies. The sales in fancy articles have greatly improved, but much more could be done in this line if the ladies would take the trouble to look over the articles placed on our counters for sale by worthy and industrious women.

The ice cream parlors were open at the proper season, but being so remote from the business center of our city, and the cool weather which prevailed during the summer months, made it necessary for us to close the rooms before the season was over.

The current expenses of the sales-room greatly exceed the commission of ten per cent charged consignors on the sale of their goods. In view of this heavy drain on the few noble ladies who assume from month to month the responsibility of meeting the excess in our expenses, we feel must soon be avoided in some way. To this end, we are looking forward to a day in the near future when we must again resort to serving lunches with the hope of covering the running expenses of the Exchange.

Through the agency of our Bureau of Information, many working girls have found good homes, and many needy seamstresses profitable work. Through the aid of our Committee on Protection, a few self-dependent women have had paid to them wages wrongfully withheld by their dishonest task-masters. More of this kind of assistance we hope to render our working women in the future.

Membership fee has been reduced from five dollars to two dollars per annum, which membership entitles each lady to three consignor's tickets, which she can transfer to any worthy working woman who may not be able to pay the price of one dollar for a consignor's ticket.

Number of consignors at present time, July 1891, 75.

Receipts from sales for present year average $500 per month.

Up to month of May, 1891, no charges were made for use of Employment bureau. Since then, charges are 50 cents for domestics and $1 for employers. When no charges were made, the applicants for places averaged nineteen per month, and the number of orders and domestics placed averaged ten per month. Since May, the applicants for places average ten per month, orders average from four to eight per month, and orders filled average from three to five per month.

Present location of exchange, Baltimore avenue and Twelfth street.

Following are rules of Kansas City Exchange:

RULES.

1. Every consignor will be required to pay one dollar per year for the privilege of depositing articles for sale, for which a receipt and number will be given each consignor—the year being counted from date of consignor's ticket.

2. Ten per cent will be charged on all sales and on price received for order work.

3. Every article on sale must have the selling price and number, also a minimum price, securely fastened to it, and must be sent, and returned if not sold, free of expense, to the Exchange, and at the risk of the owner.

4. No articles will be accepted unless accompanied by a complete list, bearing depositor's number, name, address and date of shipment. Depositors must keep a duplicate list of same.

5. All work is received subject to the approval of the different committees.
  6. When goods are marked at so high a price as to render them unsalable, the committees will mark them down, unless otherwise instructed by the depositor at the time of entry.
  7. The society does not hold itself responsible for losses, having taken all reasonable precautions against fire, theft and accidents.
  8. Goods entered cannot be withdrawn in less than one month, and will not be retained longer than one year. If unsold at that time, they must be removed immediately on notice being sent the depositor; otherwise, having been duly advertised, they will be sold at auction.
  9. Persons leaving orders will be required to deposit twenty per cent of the value of the article to be made.
  10. All inquiries and complaints will be answered by the Board of Directors or Visiting committee, some of whom will be at the rooms daily from 10 to 12 o'clock.
  11. City consignors will receive money due them at the Exchange rooms on Tuesdays and Fridays, from 10 to 4 o'clock. Money will be sent to depositors at a distance every three months, or every month if the amount exceeds five dollars.
  12. Consignors must present their receipts before payment of any dues, or the return of any goods.
  13. Each member of the society will be entitled to three consignors' tickets, which she may use as she deems best.

HELPS FOR WORKING WOMEN.

A lady of this city has offered to pay the expenses of any working women who need a few weeks rest during the warm weather. She has made arrangement for their comfort and enjoyment on a pleasant farm in the adjacent country, but up to July has succeeded in getting only two girls (saleswomen) to avail themselves of her kindness. The difficulty seems to lie in the fact that their employers are not willing to give them leave of absence.

A FRESH AIR HOME FOR CHILDREN

Is being planned by ladies of the W. C. A. They expect to rent a cottage in the suburbs near Washington park. Will have accommodations for six convalescent children at one time. The children will remain two or three weeks or more, according to their needs.

PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION,

Ninth and Charlotte streets.

The Provident Association of Kansas City was formed in November, 1880, by a number of citizens who proposed to unite individual efforts at charity and to concentrate the work in the hands of a thoroughly equipped organization.

At the present time, the methods pursued by this association in assisting the needy are similar to those of the associated charity societies of St. Louis and other cities. A system of investigation and friendly visits among the poor has been established, also a free employment bureau and a permanent wood-pile—the latter to provide employment for those who cannot obtain it elsewhere.

A record of material help given individuals during the year 1890 shows a total of 528 persons provided with food and fuel, most of whom were women and children. Total number of railroad fares provided, 402, most of which were for men leaving town to seek work.

Before the present employment bureau was established, during the year 1890, 216 persons were provided with work, 51 of whom were women.

THE INSTRUCTIVE DISTRICT NURSING ASSOCIATION.

The object of this Association is to provide visiting nurses to those otherwise unable to secure skilled attendance in time of illness, to teach cleanliness and the proper care of the sick.

Though the object of this Association is to relieve the distresses of men, women and children, yet those who are most benefited by this work are poor women—mothers of families and others who are either ill themselves or have sick ones to care for.

One year ago this work was begun by the women of a Congregational church in this city. They employed a trained nurse to visit poor families in this way. But only since April, 1891, has the Association been organized. The headquarters of this Association are in the Charity building, on 9th and Charlotte streets.

These associations are no longer an experiment, but established facts in London, England, and other foreign cities, and in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Buffalo and Chicago, in our own country. They employ trained nurses to visit and care for the sick poor. Each association has a loan closet, from which are dispensed clothing, sheets and pillow-cases, and all appurtenances necessary for the comfort and well-being of the sick. The nurse makes a daily round of visits among her patients, making them comfortable for the day, often returning a second time in cases of dangerous illness, and is able to relieve much suffering by her skilled attentions, as well as to give valuable instructions in nursing and hygiene.

HUMANE SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY.

The Kansas City Humane Society was established in 1883. The salaries of the two officers are paid half by voluntary subscriptions and the other half by the city.

This is a society for the prevention of universal cruelty to men, women, children and animals. Besides investigating numerous cases and disposing of them, the officers of this Society send many individuals to their homes and to asylums and institutions that they deem best adapted for their different distresses and needs. Many unfortunate women are sent to the Humane society by the matron of the police station.

The following report of work done by this Society for the past year deals mostly with cases where women and girls were involved, and therefore is not a complete showing of work performed:

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE INDUSTRIAL HOME.

The means for establishing this Home were obtained through the efforts of the ladies of the W. C. T. U., who canvassed the city, soliciting donations in cash, merchandise and furniture. A house with pleasant and spacious grounds was rented on Lowell and Independence avenue, and the home opened in December, 1890.

This is a home for friendless women and children. No child under 5 years of age, unless a baby with its mother, is eligible. Women of all ages and not criminals are either temporarily sheltered while hunting work, or received for indefinite lengths of time if too old to work in families. Transient inmates are received from the humane officers and charitable societies, Bureau of Charities, Employment Bureau of the Y. W. C. A., and all city and police officials, without making application to the Admission committee.

The children have been brought for the most part by the humane officers from very wretched homes—drunken and dissolute mothers—children whose parents are unfitted to care for them morally and physically. The old women in the home are past the age when they can earn their livelihood, and have no one to care for them. The middle-aged and young women are temporarily cared for when out of work and funds, or when sick, until they are able to work or find other homes.

An endeavor is made to educate the children and young women by giving them a thorough moral training and a thorough knowledge of household and needle work, and in this way fit them to honorably support themselves. The old ladies teach the younger inmates sewing and mending. The matron and her assistant, the latter a capable inmate of the home, instruct in the care of rooms, and the cook instructs in kitchen and dining-room work. It is expected some time in the future to have regularly appointed teachers for the school-room and other departments.

The ages of the inmates range from 1 to 82 years. Fifty-eight persons have been sheltered in the Home since December 1st, and have been in the home at one time.

A dress-making department is now carried on under the direction of a competent dress-maker, and in a short time a mending bureau will be started in this Home.

The house is an old-fashioned double-brick of ten rooms, standing back from the road on a deep lot, containing many fine old forest trees.

The house is furnished very plain but neat and comfortably. The Home is over-crowded, the accommodations not being sufficient for the number that are to be accommodated.

When the parents are able to do so they pay their children's board, $1 per week. Two old ladies, whose married children allow them a small monthly stipend but do not give them a home, pay board in this home. One pays $8 and the other $10 per month.

THE POLICE MATRON.

For two years only has Kansas City been blessed with a Police Matron. Mrs. Patti Moore of this city has multitudinous duties of a deeply responsible nature connected with her position as Police Matron. All the women and children who are brought to the police court through misfortune or crime are personally cared for by the Police Matron. Female prisoners in the jail, also, are under her care, she being the one to see that personal cleanliness is attended to, that they are decently and properly dressed, and care for them in various ways. The Matron, too, purchases for them all needed articles of clothing. In cases that are usually disposed of in the police court, the Matron, where she judges that imprisonment will only harden and degrade the women, intercedes for them and has them sent to some institution or asylum where they will have a chance to reform and become better women. The children, too, are sent to various homes and institutions adapted to their special needs, as are also unfortunate girls and women who are without friends or homes.

The following, taken from the Matron's report for 1890, is not a complete showing of the work done by the Matron during the past year, but will give an idea of the character of her work :

NURSES' TRAINING SCHOOLS.

Up to October, 1911, there have been no regularly organized training schools for nurses in Kansas City. A training school for nurses was established October last in the Homœopathic hospital at 817 East Eighth street, Mary J. Green, M. D. Superintendent of the hospital, has charge of this training school for nurses. There is one nurse who has been under training for eight months and three are on probation. One month is required for probation and two years for graduation. During probation, the nurse has her board, lodging and washing all free of charge, but no pay. For the first year, $8 per month; for the second year, $12 per month. After graduation, from $15 to $20 per month and $25 for head nurse. Board, lodging and washing always given besides the salary. For nursing in private families, graduates receive $20 and $25 per week, but for nursing in hospital the salary is as given above. Those in the second year of their training can nurse in private families, but whatever they make above their $12 per month must go to the hospital.

Another training school for nurses in Kansas City has been started at All Saints' hospital, on Tenth and Campbell streets.

The Matron, a graduate with six years' experience in nursing, will have charge of the nurses in this hospital. Time for training, salaries, etc., same as in other hospitals. Head nurse is graduate of St. Louis Training School for Nurses. Two nurses on probation and one nurse under training. At present, the nurses make their home in the hospital, but later on expect to occupy adjoining cottage for sleeping accommodations and meals.

A third training school is the Children's Hospital on Sixteenth and Wyandotte streets. Here are two probationists besides a trained head nurse from Indianapolis, and the Matron, who is also a trained, experienced nurse. The nurses in this hospital will receive $15 per month. This hospital has been established for only a short time.

WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION HOME FOR CHILDREN.

This Home for children was established in 1883 by the ladies of the W. C. A., who believed that the most effectual and lasting way to help indigent women whose work obliged them to leave home was to give their children a comfortable home.

The home is on Charlotte and Twelfth streets; is a large three-story brick building of 24 rooms, owned by the Association. The expenses of the institution, amounting to about $320 per month, are sustained by contributions, by membership fees, dinners, bazaars and other entertainments, and by receipts from board.

Incidentally this has also been a home for women. During the past year an average of 3 women per month have been sheltered here during the night, while 12 women during the year have made this their home for a few days or weeks while seeking work.

The ages of the children received in this institution range from 18 months to 14 and 15 years. In the present month of July there are 51 children in the home—25 boys and 26 girls. Number admitted during the year, 155.

The mothers of two-thirds of the children are working women. One-third of the children in the home are motherless and placed here by their fathers. Those parents that are able pay for their children's board, from 25 to 50 cents per week, whatever they can afford. The highest board, $1.50 per week, has been paid by some of the fathers.

During the year 1890, 30 children ranging in age from 6 months to 13 years have found homes in Missouri, Kansas, Indiana and Pennsylvania. The youngest of these were from the infants' department on Tracy street; 7 of the 30 have been legally adopted.

THE INFANTS' HOME.

Twenty-first and Tracy-sts.

This home was established in December, 1890, by the W. C. A. It was intended as a home for abandoned infants. A kind friend gave the free use of the property, which consists of a large, old-fashioned house surrounded by four acres well-filled with fruit-trees, shrubbery and grape-vines. Besides the free use of the house and grounds, the donor added $30 monthly toward expenses and $200 for repairs.

Number of infants per month cared for average 12, most of whom have been under one year of age. Besides these infants, 21 children between the ages of five and six have been sheltered in this home since March. The mothers of three of these children left their children in the home only during the day while they were working, and the mothers of the remaining 18 were deserted wives who placed their children in the home for a few weeks or months while working in families. Those who were able paid $1 per month board for these children.

Owing to the condition in which the abandoned infants are born, the mortality among them is very great.

CHILDREN'S FREE HOSPITAL,

Eighteenth and Wyandotte streets.

The children's free hospital was established in July, 1890, by citizens of this city, and is kept up by private subscriptions.

The object of this hospital is to provide a place for the care, treatment and cure of maimed or diseased children whose parents or friends are unable or unwilling to provide for them, and to furnish necessary surgical and medical care and treatment.

The present building occupied as hospital is a rented residence of eight or nine rooms, which accommodations are insufficient. This building, however, is only a beginning. A building fund has been started for a model children's hospital.

Ages of children received in this hospital range from 2 to 12 years.

Number received during the past year, 38. Number discharged as relieved or cured, 28. Deaths, 2. Present number in the hospital, 18.

Some of the children have been abandoned or have no parents, others have mother or father. The mothers are working women, mostly domestics.

Besides the Matron, who is a trained and experienced nurse, there are three other nurses and a cook.

ORPHAN ASYLUM.

The Sisters of St. Joseph own a large building with 11 acres of land on 30th and Jefferson streets, in the suburbs of Kansas City. Here they established an orphan asylum some nine years ago.

Orphans and half orphans are received in this asylum, and those parents that are able, pay something for the children's board, from $2 to $4 per month. Most of the mothers are working women, domestics and laundresses, whose children are cared for while they earn a living.

The ages of the children range from 2 to 17 years. Those that have mother or father are often abandoned, in which case the children are kept in the asylum until prepared to earn their living.

Present number of girls in the asylum, 65. No boys received here.

WOMAN'S REFUGE.

The Woman's Refuge, established in 1885 by a branch of the W. C. T. U., is a home for friendless and unfortunate women. The class intended to be aided were tempted and betrayed women and deserted wives. But besides the regular inmates, many calls have been made upon this institution by transient guests—women who are strangers in the city and have spent their last cent. These women are sheltered until work is found or friends heard from. All in the home who are able to work are expected to share in the household and laundry work. The expenses of the home are paid partly by the income derived from the laundry work done by the inmates, who earn about $61 per month. But the greater part of the expenses are provided by personal solicitations and assistance given by the Provident Association and the county court. The expenses of the institution average $216.22 per month. The monthly receipts from all sources average $226.19.

The home is situated in a pleasant neighborhood, and is a nice looking double brick house of 22 rooms, provided with every convenience and furnished very plainly, but comfortably and neat, and with surroundings that are refined.

Constant efforts are made to help the unfortunate class to a better and more cheerful state of mind. This is accomplished through religious services and proper amusements. New names are given them upon entering the institution, and everything is done to help them to drop the old life. These women are required to remain in the home one year after their confinement, and upon entering the home they sign an article to that effect. At the end of the year, if worthy, they are given references and provided with places where they can support themselves and children. Homes are found for those infants whose mothers are unable to support them. The mothers are encouraged to keep their babies, as it is believed that mother-love will tend to make them abhor the evil and turn to that which is good.

Fully one-half of the reformatory class have been under 20 years of age. Nearly all were homeless. Many have been cast out at an early age by unfeeling parents to earn a livelihood. Most of this class have been domestics in private families and boarding houses.

Married women who are unable to pay $25 for attendance during their illness are expected to remain in the home three months to cover these expenses. Fully one-third of the maternity cases are deserted wives. These wives also, are if possible provided with places.

During the past year 100 women have been sheltered in this home. Forty of these women were of the reformatory class and the remainder were deserted wives and other unfortunate women. During the year 40 women have been provided with places, and more than half of this number were married women. Twenty-seven births during the year, and 9 of these mothers were married women. Five deaths among the infants during the year. Seven infants adopted. Average number of infants per month in the nursery, 17. Average number of women per month, 27. Present number of women in the home, 10.

SALVATION ARMY HOME FOR WOMEN.

This Home for unfortunate women, situated in a pleasant locality, 1722 Indiana avenue, was established on the 15th June, 1891. It is managed by the jail committee of the Salvation Army, and its expenses sustained by dues from the members of the army, as well as subscriptions from individuals and churches.

The Salvation Army in Kansas City numbers between thirty and forty soldiers, and is divided into five corps. The jail committee consists of one corps.

The object of the Salvation Army Home is to help the unfortunate—those who have fallen or are in danger of falling, and are in need of a home and friends. The inmates can remain in the Home as long as they need its shelter, and until they are prepared to honestly earn their living or return to friends. While in the Home they are taught how to do sewing and household work, that they may be prepared to earn their living when they leave the Home.

At present time, not yet one month since established, there are four inmates in the Home, three women and one child, the latter belonging to one of the inmates. There are accommodations in the Home for twelve persons. The house has nine rooms, and will accommodate twelve persons. Rent of house, $15. At present, the rooms are very bare, containing only bare necessities. Bed-room floors are bare, and a bed in the corner of room is only article of furniture.

Besides the inmates, there are a Matron and nurse, both of whom are soldiers in Salvation Army. The inmates are expected to share in the household work.

Following are rules of the Home :

1. No inmate is allowed to use any slang or street phrase.
2. No inmate of the Home shall be permitted to leave the Home except in company with some member of the society.

3. No inmate of the Home shall be permitted to receive company except in presence of the Matron.

4. All articles of clothing and other property of inmates brought into the house shall be submitted to the inspection of the Matron.

Other rules will be added as the need for them is recognized.

THE SISTERS OF MERCY BOARDING HOME FOR WORKING WOMEN.

The home for working women at 510 East Sixth street, is conveniently situated for those having employment in the business parts of town. Was established in 1887 by the Sisters of Mercy, who wished to provide a respectable boarding place for working women with small earnings. The charges for board are $3, $3.50 and $4 per week, with three, two and one in a room. There are 28 rooms in the house, and accommodations for 35 boarders. During the entire year, 350 boarders have been received. During the winter season there are from 30 to 32 boarders, and during the summer months from 18 to 21. During the entire year board has been given free of charge to from 10 to 12 women who were unable to pay anything, and remained in the home while seeking employment or waiting to hear from home or friends.

Among the boarders are stenographers and type-writers, book-keepers, saleswomen, seamstresses, dress-makers, laundresses and domestics.

This is not an employment agency, yet persons desiring domestic help often call here inquiring for the same, knowing that domestics out of work board here. There are from 10 to 15 orders per month, and twice that number of domestics desiring places. Employers are charged $1, but domestics nothing.

THE HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

The Good Shepherd of Kansas City is a branch of the same order in St. Louis, and has been established in this city for four years. The house is pleasantly situated in the suburbs of the city, is a large modern brick building in the midst of extensive grounds, with plenty of conveniences and out-buildings.

There are no fallen women in this home. With the exception of a few women who are sent here by the police matron to be cured, if possible, of drunkenness, the inmates are mostly girls between the ages of 4 and 21 years. They comprise two classes, the preservative and the penitent. The preservative class consists of girls who are sent here by their parents for safe-keeping and to be educated, the parents being so situated that they cannot give them proper care and training. They are usually half orphans, one parent being dead. These girls are kept here until the parents take them away, which some never do. In the latter case the girls remain until of age or until prepared to earn their own living, at which time they are provided with employment in the outside world. There are 65 of the preservative class, of which four only pay for their board and schooling; 20 of this class have been admitted to the institution since January 1 of the present year, and 8 have been returned to their homes.

The penitent class consists of girls from 12 to 18 years of age who are considered incorrigible; they have run away from home, or have in some other way proved unmanageable, or have been drawn into evil ways through bad associates. They remain here one year or more, according to the wishes of their parents or guardians. These girls do laundry work and sewing for factories, the income from which work helps toward keeping up the institution. But the institution is not as yet self-sustaining. The penitent class numbers 58 girls, 19 of whom were admitted since January of the present year. During the entire year, 89 incorrigibles were sent to this place by the Humane society. Since January, 7 of the penitent class have been returned to their homes, and one has escaped.

HOME FOR THE AGED (COLORED).

On Vine, near Fourteenth street, is a frame cottage of seven rooms, occupied as a home for aged colored women. This home was established two years ago by some charitable people, and has been kept up ever since by donations and subscriptions from the charitably disposed. Is a shabby, poor-looking place on the inside, but shelters six old colored women, some of whom, with the help of an old colored man, manage to do the work of the house.

CHILLICOTHE.

THE STATE INDUSTRIAL HOME FOR GIRLS.

The following is taken from Superintendent's report :

The State Industrial Home for Girls was established by the Legislature of 1887, and modeled somewhat after the Michigan institution located at Adrian. This institution was located by the Governor, Attorney-General and Register of Lands, as provided in the law of establishment.

The location decided upon by these State officials seems to be all that could be desired. In a fine and healthful part of the State, easy of access by railway and near enough for market purposes to the growing city of Chillicothe.

In January, 1889, the building being completed, the Board announced the Home ready for the reception of girls—Mrs. Julia S. Vincent, a former member of the Board, being elected Superintendent.

The building provided by the State for this work is a beautiful and imposing structure, built of brick, upon a stone basement, and will accommodate about forty inmates. Besides a fine-looking building, it has the conveniences for the work for which it was planned.

The scope and aims of the Board are well set forth in the following extracts from the establishing act :

1. The Home will be conducted on the family or cottage plan, where girls from seven to seventeen years of age, removed from vicious associates and evil influences, may receive a careful physical, intellectual and moral training, and such non-sectarian religious instruction as may be prescribed by the Superintendent; participate in the enjoyment of a true home life; be reformed and become good domestic women, prudent in speech and conduct, cleanly, industrious and capable housekeepers.

2. While intellectual training will be a prominent feature in the management of the Home, the teaching of all domestic industries (which shall take precedence of trades) shall constitute the leading feature in such management, and shall consist of a thorough education in every branch of household work.

The management of the Home is under the superintendency of Miss Emma M. Gilbert, a lady of rare ability and aptness for this kind of work, having had six years' experience as assistant superintendent in the Michigan Industrial Home for Girls at Adrian, Michigan.

THE AMENDED LAW.

Sections 5760 and 5769 of article 6, chapter 88 of the Revised Statutes of 1889 are hereby repealed, and the following two new sections are enacted in lieu of same:

SEC. 5760. Every girl over the age of seven years and under the age of seventeen years, who shall be convicted of being a vagrant, or of any offense not punishable with death or imprisonment for life, may, except in cases deemed incorrigible, be sentenced to said industrial home—such sentence to be approved by the circuit or probate judge before committal, and the age of the girl so committed to be indorsed on the commitment. Any female child may be bound as apprentice to said industrial home for girls as to any other master, and subject to the same provisions of law as are now or may hereafter be in force.

SEC. 5769. For the support of the inmates of said industrial home, each county shall pay at the rate of seventy-five dollars per annum for every individual sent from such county as apprentice or otherwise—payment thereof to be made quarterly in advance, the money so paid to be received by the superintendent of said home in trust for the board of control, and expended by its direction.

The claim is made that as the law stands a girl must be convicted of a crime committed in order to make her admissible in the institution. If that is the proper rendering of the law, then I believe it is the duty of your body to ask at the coming session of legislature an amendment to the law. I would like to see the law so amended that more of the younger class of girls, and those not yet hardened in crime, could be sent here for training, and the more hardened cases left outside—girls hanging about the streets, saloons or gambling places, those incorrigible or wayward, and all such girls as by their surroundings and associations are being either driven or led into sin. Then the limiting ages should be rather from six to seventeen, than from seven to twenty.

The real objects of this institution I take to be the two, the reformation of character of those who are guilty of crime, and the protection of those who would, without some help, be soon in the wrong way.

During the year 1889 but seven girls were received at the Home; but four in 1890.

They were received as follows:

|                      |   |                  |    |

Of the eleven received, one was placed out in a home, and has since been discharged. Another was adjudged insane, and by her county sent to the asylum.

The girls already received were from counties as follows:

Of the girls committed, the ages were as follows:

EARNINGS AND EXPENSES OF WORKING MEN COMPARED.

In getting statistics on the earnings and expenses of working men, a comparative showing is made between a certain number employed in a large country manufacturing establishment, and a like number in a city establishment of the same kind.

The St. Charles car-shops, located at St. Charles, Mo., and the Missouri Pacific car-shops, located at St. Louis, Mo., are the establishments from which a detailed statement is taken of earnings and expenses of 75 workingmen from each of the above-named places. Considerable discussion has arisen from time to time as to whether it was cheaper for a working man to live in the country or city, and from an examination of the following tables, some light may be thrown on the subject.

It was an easy matter to get the earnings of the 75 working men at each of the above establishments for the year 1890 (the time considered), as the pay-rolls showed the exact amount earned by each employe. An agent of the Bureau visited the different families, and obtained from the husband and wife an itemized expenditure during the year for food, clothing and sundries. Considerable trouble was experienced by the agent in getting answers to these questions; but by judicious questioning, complete answers were obtained on all points desired. An examination of the following tables will show the earnings and expenses in detail, as well as a comparative showing.

In the column with the heading, "Balance amount spent for living other than food during year," includes the items insurance, furniture and utensils, religion, charity, sickness and sundries. The amount spent for each of these items is given in the individual budgets that follow these tables. The column with the heading, "Balance amount spent for food during year," includes flour, sugar, coffee, milk, eggs, miscellaneous, and the amount spent for each of these items will appear in the individual budgets which follow these tables.

| Percentage amount spent for amusements bears to income    | 4.           | 4.50       |

The annual rent per family is 8 per cent higher in St. Charles than St. Louis.

For clothing a St. Charles car-shop employe pays 21 per cent more per year per family than a St. Louis man in the same work. Per individual per year, this excess for St. Charles is reduced to only 3 per cent. The St. Charles car-shop employe, however, pays for his personal clothing 29½ per cent more than his St. Louis brother workman.

4. Annual Cost of Food per Family.

|                                                                                                     | St. Charles. | St. Louis. |

| Percentage the amount spent for liquor and beer bears to the annual income.....                     | 3 80         | 3.66       |

For meat, lard and butter a St. Louis workman pays 27½ per cent more a year per family than a workman in St. Charles. Most of the St. Charles workmen either fatten or buy hogs, and put up their own hams, bacon and salt meat. The above showing for St. Charles would be even more favorable but for the high price of corn in the fall of 1890, which prevented many families, that had done so in other years, from fattening hogs last year.

Potatoes were an entire failure in 1890 on account of the drouth, which also affected the vegetables, which yielded only 50 per cent of an average crop. The expense for potatoes and vegetables was 66½ per cent higher in St. Louis than in St. Charles. This proportion will scarcely be changed by abundant crops, as the extra amount had also to be defrayed by St. Louis workmen. The average price for potatoes is 75 cents per bushel instead of $1.40, as last winter.

5. Balance.

|                                                       | St. Charles. | St. Louis. |

| Percentage the surplus bears to the income..          | 10.          | 13.        |

The total annual cost of living per family in St. Louis is 15½ per cent higher than in St. Charles. The total annual income, however, being 24 per cent higher in St. Louis, the balance is in favor of the latter place.

The annual surplus in a St. Louis workman's family is 50 per cent greater than the surplus in a St. Charles workman's family.

CONVICT LABOR.

The following report was made to the 36th General Assembly, in compliance with a resolution passed by that body February 10th, 1891 :

A resolution introduced by the Honorable J. W. Kerwin and adopted by your honorable body, February 10th, 1891, directed the Commissioner of Labor Statistics to inspect the factories within the penitentiary at Jefferson City, and to obtain all the information concerning those factories which the law requires shall be obtained concerning factories throughout the State. Section 8225, Revised Statutes 1889, provides that the Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall obtain the names of factories, where located, the class and value of goods manufactured yearly, the number of weeks in operation, the cost of buildings and grounds, the cost of machinery and repairs, the amount paid yearly for rent, taxes and insurance, the value of raw material used yearly, the total amount of wages paid yearly, etc., etc.

In accordance with the resolution of your honorable body, I, as special agent, proceeded on the 11th of February to make an inspection and obtain the desired information concerning the factories in the State penitentiary.

The officials of the penitentiary were most obliging and courteous, and afforded all the information in their power. The tables hereto attached will be found accurate and complete as far as it was in the Warden's power to supply the facts ; this report, however, is necessarily incomplete, owing to the fact that six of the seven contractors and factory operators employing convict labor, each and all courteously but firmly declined to give the information called for in your resolution and by section 8225, Revised Statutes 1889. The names of the contractors declining to give this information are :

The Jefferson City Shoe Co.

The Gliesecke Boot and Shoe Co.

The J. S. Sullivan Saddle-tree Co.

The Standard Shoe Co.

A. Priesmeyer.

J. Strauss Saddlery Co.

I respectfully suggest that the Commissioner of Labor be either relieved from the duty of collecting the statistics called for in section 8225, or that he be given sufficient power and authority to compel manufacturers and others to give such data. I further suggest, if section 8225 is not repealed, and it continues to be the duty of the Commissioner of Labor to obtain statistics as to value and quantity of goods manufactured yearly in the State of Missouri, that manufacturers and others be required to accompany their statistical returns with an affidavit that the information given is accurate and correct. I was satisfied during the last investigation of this Bureau that some of the returns made by manufacturers contained willful misstatements; in some cases the value of goods manufactured was grossly exaggerated, in others the amount paid for wages was manifestly misrepresented. The law, however, does not require these returns to be made under oath; hence the only reply, when these discrepancies and manifestly incorrect statements were pointed out, was:

"We have answered the questions and have nothing more to say."

A report showing the State's industrial progress from year to year would be both interesting and valuable, but in my judgment the Labor Commissioner should not be given the duty of preparing such a report unless at the same time he is given authority to obtain returns under oath, to the end that the statistics obtained may be accurate and devoid of exaggerations and misstatements. For the reasons stated, the present report is incomplete, owing to the refusal of the contractors to furnish certified statements containing the information called for in the resolution of your honorable body.

I proceed now to present such facts as we were able to obtain through the courtesy of the Warden and his assistants.

AMOUNTS PAID BY CONTRACTORS TO STATE AND THE RETURN MADE BY STATE TO CONTRACTORS FOR SUCH AMOUNTS.

Among the items showing the return made by the State to the contractors will be found $11,932.98, marked "six per cent on the appraised value of factories." The State furnishes contractors with buildings for which no rent is charged, but in estimating the return made by the State for money received from the contractors, it has seemed to me that an account should be taken of these buildings, and I have estimated six per cent on the appraised value of the buildings as a fair and reasonable return. By adding this item of rent, and also the item of $15,125 for guarding the convicts—two expenses which the State incurs on behalf of the contractors, two expenses which it would not otherwise incur, for neither the buildings nor extra guards would be needed without the contractors—the total value of the return made by the State to the contractors is $203,039.05, or $27,057.93 in excess of the amount paid by the contractors to the State. These figures hold only in case it is assumed that the convict's labor is worth the contract price, and that the contract price is actually paid to the State for the labor and labor alone. As a matter of fact, this is not the case. The contractor nominally pays, say 50 cents for the labor of one convict for one day. In reality the contractor receives from the State the labor, not only of a convict, but the labor of guards and also the use of a building. In order, therefore, to ascertain the actual amount paid the State for convict labor, apart from the use of the buildings and guards, we must allow for the cost of the guards and rent of the shops, the two expenses incurred on account of the contractors which would not otherwise be incurred. The total amount received for convicts from all contractors during 1890 was $169,946.19; the cost to the State for shops and guarding convicts in shops was $27,057.98, leaving the total net amount received from convicts $142,888.21, or 40½ cents per day per capita. The following is a table showing number of convicts employed by each individual contractor and the gross and net amount paid the State therefor:

|                       | No. days factory was in operation during year 1890 ..... | No. of convicts employed in year ..... | Average No. convicts employed per day ..... | Gross amount received by State for convict labor..... | Cost to State for guards and shops ..... | Net amount received by State for convict labor..... | Gross amount paid to State per capita for convicts for each day. | Net am't paid to State per day per capita for convicts..... | Am't paid to State per convict for guards and shops. .... |

The following table shows the amounts paid to the State by each individual contractor, the items for which such amounts were paid, and the return made to the contractor by the State. In each of these statements, the actual value of the convict labor is assumed to be the amount which the contractors agreed to pay. This necessarily shows a balance to the credit of the State equal to the amount paid for guards and rent of shops. This amount may be deducted from the sum received from the contractors for convict labor, in which case the contract price per capita per day will be decreased from 48  $\frac{2}{3}$  cents to 40  $\frac{2}{3}$  cents:

The claim has been made that one reason why convict labor is not worth more than is paid at present, is because the convicts are inexperienced and do not remain long enough to become skilled. The result of an inquiry into the length of time each convict had been at work in his present employment on the 11th of February, 1891, may throw some light on this subject. The investigation showed that out of 1,112 convicts at work in the penitentiary factories on that day, 337, or 30 per cent, had been working upward of two years; 704, or 63 per cent, had been working one year and upward; 893, or 80 per cent, had been working upward of six months 999, or 89 per cent, had been working more than three months. Only 113, or a fraction under 10 per cent, had been working less than three months.

The contractors, on the other hand, claim that notwithstanding the fact that many of their convict employes have been engaged at the work during a considerable period, the inefficiency of those who have not yet learned the work holds back those who have learned it. The skilled shoemaker may get through his task at one o'clock, and then will remain idle the rest of the day because his unskilled companion has not finished his task, and the skilled workman cannot go on until he is supplied with work by the others. The following table shows the number of men who were idle in the Jefferson City Shoe company's shops at various hours during the week ending July 31, 1890. From this table it will be seen that out of one hundred convicts, 3.17 finished their tasks at one o'clock and were idle the rest of the day; six out of the hundred were through at 1:30 p. m.; 59.17 were idle after four o'clock. The table will show the exact number of men idle at each hour. It is believed the showing for this week is a fair average during the year, and will serve to throw some light upon the question as to how far the length of time some convicts remain with the contractors is counterbalanced by the inefficiency of the new-comers.
